

Arlington Advocate.

C. S. PARKER & SON, Proprietor.

Devoted to the Local Interests of the Town.

TWO DOLLARS AND A HALF A YEAR, Single Copies 6 cents.

Vol. xlii.

ARLINGTON, MASS., FRIDAY, JANUARY 30, 1920.

No. 8.

LET "THRIFT" BE YOUR SLOGAN

LAST DIVIDEND
AT RATE OF 4½%

INTEREST BEGINS
FEB. 1st.

AN ARLINGTON
INSTITUTION
SINCE 1860

MONEY GOES ON
INTEREST MONTHLY
Dividends Payable
January 1 and July 1

Deposits in SAVINGS BANKS up to $2000, Plus the accumulation of INTER-
EST to $4000, are EXEMPT from TAX-
ATION under the Massachusetts Income Tax Law.

ARLINGTON
FIVE CENTS
SAVINGS BANK
622 Massachusetts Avenue

WEEK-DAY PULPIT

of the

First Congregational Parish (Unitarian).

Rev. Frederic Gill, Minister, 15 Devereux Street

Not Yours but You. II Cor. 12:14.

A man is more important and valuable than his property, his name, his ancestry, or his body. The greatest thing God or men can ask, and the least we can offer, with honor and self-respect, is ourselves, and ourselves at our best.

Questions and correspondence invited.
Free literature sent.

TO THE CITIZENS OF ARLINGTON.

Retiring from the Board of Selectmen where I have served six years, I do not feel my duties completed without thanking you all for the honor you have conferred upon me.

The knowledge I have gained of town affairs has been a wonderful experience which can never be forgotten. It makes me feel prouder than ever to have served a town which, to those who know her best, will always remain the finest in the country.

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS J. DONNELLY.

TEACHERS' CLUB COURSE.

A gratifying audience gathered at the Robbins Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening, at eight o'clock, on the occasion of the initial entertainment of a series of three, given by the Teachers' Club of Arlington. Principal Carl D. Burt of the High school, humorously introduced the lecturer of the evening, Mr. John Kendrick Bangs, noted not only in this capacity but also as a writer of poetry and fiction.

Mr. Bangs is no longer merely a lecturer; he has developed into an orator,—a man with a vital message, mightily delivered. He held his audience without weariness for two hours, blending laughter with tears in his own inimitable way.

The evening was entitled "America Abroad during the War," and the words of Henri Bergson, given at a dinner at Paris, the inspiration. He said, "The American Doughboy's patriotism is different from that of men of other countries; he has no special attachment for the land, nor to the traditions nor customs of his country; he is fighting for the right and justice."

Mr. Bangs began with the spirit of the West Point men as exemplified by the major on board his ship, "Chicago," which carried 1250 souls without convoy across the sea. It was fine, unselfish; the good of the men being uppermost in the mind of the officer in charge. Here the speaker introduced a plea for military training,—a training which produces such men as Washington, U. S. Grant, Gen. Leonard Wood, Theodore Roosevelt and Maj.-Gen. Edwards. "Our American boy can never be Prussianized," said the speaker, and we shall need trained men if we continue to harbor the I. W. W., the Bolsheviks and allow the German propaganda to stalk about, spreading reports which are false, which imperil our relations with England, France and Japan, until the latter joins with Germany in a war against the United States." Following this, Mr. Bangs said, "the signing of the Armistice was more than a political blunder as some claim. It was a colossal crime. The war should have been fought to a finish then and there. The arm raised to deliver the knock-out blow fell palsied at the side of Foch, at the display of the white flag, and Germany not beaten, not broken, not repentant, is already planning the date of the next war."

Mr. Bangs again and again referred to the wonderful morale of the Doughboy, and rehearsed not a little of French history as he repeated his conversation with one in a restaurant from Fort Wayne, who finally said, "Oh well, Paris is all right; but it ain't Fort Wayne." The welfare worker, the men in all kinds of service, were given a beautiful tribute, all having done what he or she could to alleviate suffering and bring about the overthrow of wrong.

After the speaker's description of the devastated area one heartily agreed with him, that the President of the United States should have consented to travel through the part of France destroyed by the Hun, which covers more than four times the area of Mass. Had he gone, his sympathy for the Germans might have been better tempered by the suffering of this stricken country. Wanton waste is in evidence everywhere. The trees felled by the axe of the enemy were not completely killed. When Mr. and Mrs. Bangs went through this area, they were all in bloom, lying on the ground, as if they too would die gloriously. The coal mines at Lens were rendered unworkable for the next fifteen years by the breaking down of galleries and the turning of nearby streams into them.

The statement that Metz prefers the German rule, is only one more of the false statements for which the Germans are responsible. It is not the fact. Mr. Bangs visited the city after the change to French rule, to find that everything possible had been done to indicate the change had proved a happy one, his humorous description of the statue of the Kaiser and what the people of Metz had done to it, fully substantiated his claim.

The crime of the war was most clearly revealed to the intelligence of the speaker, when he went into Germany to find no devastation, everything looking prosperous, the women fat and happy whose very husbands were responsible for the suffering and terror in France.

It was then that Mr. Bangs laid his plans for a lecture tour in America and declared it to be his purpose to present to his hearers the full truth to sound notes of warning through the length and breadth of our land, against the insidious foe which is now at work throughout the length and breadth of the United States.

The speaker closed with a touching tribute to the old women of France who promised to guard our dead buried over there, and said shall we not be true to these people who, with England, stood between us and that foe who endangered our freedom? Shall we not still keep our trust to the living?

Mr. Burt announces that there remain no more single admission tickets for the remaining concerts, but a few reserved seats may be had by applying to the High school, or phoning Arlington, 2084-W.

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS J. DONNELLY.

TWO HOMES BEREAVED.

The residents of Gray and Jason streets have been plunged into a cloud of sorrow by the snuffing out of two little lives within two days, last week. Both boys were present at the Parmenter school session a week ago Monday, Jan. 19, happy, bright and apparently in perfect health. We refer to the deaths of Roscoe Bedell Conklin occurring on Friday, Jan. 23, and his little friend Charles M. MacMillin, Jr., who died Sunday morning at four o'clock. Roscoe, on Tuesday night, complained of a pain in his stomach which steadily grew worse, until the physician, called in consultation, ordered the child hurried to the Symmes Hospital, where an operation revealed an infection of the glands under the appendix, which had not shown itself, but which had no doubt been slowly developing, until the wall which nature had built up to protect the organs gave way. The glands were found to be 99 per cent tubercular. The body, apparently so strong, was unable to throw off the slow poison and the little life went from us, to continue development in a better, brighter realm, where nothing which hampers our earthly life will come near him.

Roscoe Bedell, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe V. Conklin, was born in Arlington, nine years ago. The funeral services were held at the home, 44 Gray street, on Monday afternoon, Jan. 26, Rev. Frederic Gill officiating. The flowers banked about the casket and in the rooms were most beautiful; silent, yet wonderful messengers of love and comfort to the stricken family, which includes besides the parents, one daughter. The interment was in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Charles, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. MacMillin, was born in Arlington, June 27, 1909, in the home to which Mr. and Mrs. MacMillin came as bride and groom, at 51 Jason street. Here the physician was called on Tuesday morning, as Charles complained of chills and a pain in the lungs, which upon examination showed but little trouble, not enough to warrant the boy's condition. A pimple on the chin, however, was noticed and ordered poulticed. On Thursday, as Charles had not showed the desired response to treatment, he was taken to the hospital, where a specialist for both lungs and the infected lip were called, and operations performed but to no avail, as the poison had entered the system, which caused his death, occurring Sunday morning, Jan. 25, at four o'clock.

The funeral services held on Tuesday afternoon were conducted by Rev. Samuel C. Bushnell, pastor of the Congregational church, which the family attended. Mr. Bushnell was assisted in the impressive service by Mrs. John M. Dick, who sang two songs, "Take Heart Ye Weary," by Mendelssohn, and "There's a Friend For Little Children," by Hosmer. The flowers were beautiful, many of them tributes of little playmates. Besides his parents, Charles leaves a brother, James Otis, who must now be a double comfort to the parents. The interment was at Yarmouth, Mass., the former home of Mrs. MacMillin.

VICTORS ENTERTAINED.
The Arlington High school football team, champions of the Mystic Valley League for the past season, was tendered a banquet, Monday evening, at the Boston City Club. It was a gala event and during the evening the boys heard much that would please them. The "A" of the athletic committee of the school, together with a diploma, was at each plate. No formal ceremonies took place with this presentation, all the members present being eligible for the letter. Carl D. Burt, principal of the High school, presided over the festivities, and after the good things of the banquet board had been disposed of, he opened the program with a short speech in which he lauded the team for the fine sportsmanship of the season, the good impression they had made and the clean brand of game that they played all through the season. Mr. Burt praised the boys highly and deservedly, for they went through a great season, winning all their games and being scored on but once in the season,—a record few schools can boast of.

Dr. William T. McCarthy, athletic director in the High school, and who coached the team, praised the boys for their good work, naming them the best team he had coached in the years he had acted as coach in the school. An unusual case was, he stated, that all through the season not one of the players was out of the game on account of deficiency in studies.

Walter S. Cooleidge, Jr., captain of the championship team, praised his team mates for their loyalty and good sportsmanship and announced that Charles L. Hardy, better known as Lawrence Hardy, had been elected captain for next season. Capt.-elect Hardy made a fine speech. As he has a number of last year team available next season, the prospects for another championship team looks rosy.

The guest of the evening was Capt. Billy Murray of the Harvard football team. He told the boys of the California trip, some of the experiences while in California and a number of requisites which go to make up a winning football team, the main one being, that stick-together-determination to win.

Those receiving the "A" were, Capt. Walter S. Cooleidge, Jr., captain elect Lawrence Hardy, manager John Crosby, David Barr, Leslie Brenton, Gordon Boyce, Fred Crosby, Bradford Mills, Harold Hargrove, William Tobin, Leon Oglevie, Edward Viano, Fred Lowe, Elery Duncan, Herbert Danton, Daniel Murphy.

ARLINGTON WOMAN'S CLUB.

At the next meeting of the club, Thursday, February 5, Mrs. Charles L. May, chairman of the Federation Legislative department, will present for consideration and endorsement the three following bills which have been endorsed by the State Executive Board:

1. Maternity care. Speaker, Dr. Merrill Champion, member of State department of health.

2. Health education bill. Speaker, Mr. Edward T. Hartman, secretary of Mass. Civic League.

3. Film censorship. Two speakers to be announced, pro and con.

Questions and discussions from the floor on all three bills will follow.

Mrs. Frank H. Torrey, director of the sixth district, will greet the delegates. The fifty-three clubs of the sixth district will send delegates but others interested will be welcome. The meeting will be of great interest to all members of the club and especially so to mothers, as all the three bills pertain to children.

"Our mutual Friend," is the title of the play that has been selected by the Dramatic Committee of the Arlington Woman's club, to be given by club members on March 18th. The cast has been secured and rehearsals are being held. The play is being coached by Mrs. Wm. M. Hatch, chairman of this committee of the club.

The last lecture in the course being given by Miss Martha A. S. Shannon, under the direction of the Art and Literature Committee of the Arlington Woman's club, will come Feb. 26. It will be an illustrated by lantern slides. The subject is "The Boston of Wm. Morris Hunt.—1860-1880."

RED CROSS NOTES.

Next Tuesday, February 3, will be the last of the Red Cross weekly meetings for sewing in the old Town Hall. A large attendance is desired to finish the quota.

The knitting will continue for the present. The Knitting Committee will be at the old Town Hall on Tuesdays, after February 3, between two and four o'clock, to give out yarn for the making of children's stockings and women's shoulder shawls; also for the making of long sleeve sweaters and helmets for our returned service men suffering from tuberculosis. The Knitting Committee announces that the quota of ten sweaters and five helmets was completed in less than the two weeks allotted.

The chairman read the chapter news letter for January. The Metropolitan Chapter intends to publish the news letter once a month, giving therein an official account of the activities of the Red Cross.

Attention was again drawn to Mr. Walter A. Robinson's free illustrated lecture in the Robbins' Memorial Hall, February 8, at eight o'clock.

There was a meeting of the Home Service Committee Monday afternoon. An important notice from the Metropolitan Home Service section was read by the chairman, Mr. Hornblower. "Any soldier or sailor who is carrying a government insurance policy, or who has been disabled, should know about the Smooth Bill, passed December 24, 1919. This bill contains provisions which give many additional advantages to service men and ex-service men. Some of the important changes pertain to insurance and compensation. The list of beneficiaries that service men may name has been extended. The amounts of compensation for disability have been much increased. For example, a single man totally disabled will now receive $80 instead of $30 a month. For information regarding details of these changes, please apply to Miss Doris Allen, Home Service Visitor, on Monday evenings, at the Town Hall, from 7.30 to 8.30.

ARLINGTON BOY SCOUTS.

The boys of Troop One, Arlington, are making remarkable progress in their new meeting place at the Arlington High school gymnasium, under the leadership of Scoutmaster William A. Forbes. This troop is working hard to be a winning troop at the district rally. Among the visitors at their last troop meeting were Scout Executive Evans, who instructed the boys in many games; Acting Deputy Commissioner Kinnell, who gave the boys a good hard drill in marching tactics and setting-up exercises; Scoutmaster Moore and assistant from Troop Two, Cambridge.

In accordance with the recommendation of Mayor Quinn of Cambridge, the week of February 8 to 14 will be "Good Turn Week," encouraging everyone, young and old "To do a Good Turn Daily." The Boy Scouts of Arlington are working hard with the Anniversary Week program.

Scout Executive Evans has instructed the Scout leaders of the district in the importance of the week and the great good that will be derived from the getting together of all the boys of the council for friendly competition. From the entries received to date, it is safe to promise the public a most interesting evening of scout activities.

ARLINGTON LOCALS.

The Mission circle of Universalist church, will meet with Mrs. Thomas Penard, 12 Norfolk road, on Wednesday, Feb. 4.

Jane, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Carroll, was born on Sunday, Jan. 18th, at the home on Brantwood place.

Mr. A. Lubbe of North Cambridge, who has been at Symmes Hospital for an operation for gall stones, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Sadie J. MacKenzie, of West Somerville, passed away Wednesday, Jan. 21. She was the mother of Mrs. William H. Fitzgerald of this town.

Next Sunday evening, Mr. Adelbert Spicer, of Everett, state president of the Y. P. C. U., will speak at the meeting of the young people's society.

Mrs. Wilson D. Clark, Jr., entertained a few friends at luncheon at her home on Wellington street on Tuesday. Cards rounded out a delightful afternoon.

Rev. Frederic Gill, pastor of the First Parish (Unitarian) church, will preach in the Universalist-church next Sunday, in exchange with Rev. William H. Gould.

Friends and patrons of the Robbins' Memorial Library were glad to greet Miss Babson at her desk again on Tuesday, after an illness which has confined her to her home for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Bickford of Raymond avenue, West Somerville, are visiting for a few weeks with their granddaughter, Mrs. Edgar Haggatt. Mr. Bickford recently celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday.

Nineteen little friends were bidding by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taber Hall on Tuesday afternoon, to their home, in honor of their son Edward's birthday. Games were enjoyed and refreshments held its usual important part in the afternoon's program. One little friend expressed the sentiments of all when he said in leaving, "This is the peachiest party I have ever been to."

The pulpit of the First Parish (Unitarian) church will be occupied on Sunday morning by the Rev. Wm. H. Gould, of the Universalist church, who exchanges with Mr. Gill. The choir will be assisted by Mr. Carl Stockbridge, violincello, of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, who will render three selections during the service. The hour is 10.30 and the public is cordially invited.

A parish supper followed by an entertainment was given by the Universalist Society on Monday evening. A goodly number sat down to a delectable supper in charge of Miss Katharine Yerrinton and a committee comprised of the N. S. group. Miss Yerrinton also was in charge of the entertainment in which every body took part, impromptu numbers being called for and responded to heartily. The evening was a pleasant one, enjoyed by those who attended.

Mr. Herbert A. Snow of Claremont avenue, at the request of his friends, has consented to allow his name to be used as a candidate for School Committee, in the place of Mr. Estabrook, who after several years of faithful service, does not wish to continue. Mr. Snow is well qualified to serve on this important board, being a technical man of wide experience. He is a well known resident of the Heights section, and his children are in the public schools of the town.

The Coenonia club of Somerville met on Saturday afternoon with Miss continued on page 8.

CONCERT
TECHNOLOGY MUSICAL CLUBS
Town Hall—Friday,
Feb. 6, 1920.
8 P. M.
Tickets on sale at Arlington News Co. Centre. Walter F. Angus Drug Store, E. Arlington.
T. H. Emus Drug Store, Mass. Ave., Arlington Heights.
Also by Members of Men's Club, Universalist Church.

To the People of Arlington.
We wish to announce that we are now open for business and that we are making upholstered library and living room sets to order.
You can save between 20% to 30% by buying direct from us, as we manufacture our own furniture.
We also do upholstering and repairing at reasonable prices. We use the best materials. Workmanship guaranteed.

Smith Bros. Upholstering Co.
707 Mass. Ave., Arlington

Tel. 99-1

C. S. PARKER & SON - Tel

SIR OLIVER LODGE.

The coming of Sir Oliver Lodge to Boston to give his message on inter-communication between the "two worlds," is an event of deep interest. At his first appearance, Symphony Hall was packed to the doors, and the vast audience heard him with rapt attention. The audience may fall off somewhat, for Sir Oliver is not what might be called a lecturer, but there can be no doubt as to the interest of the people in the subject. This is noteworthy.

There have been periods when people seem to be absorbed in material things, many are so absorbed now; yet the inquiry as to what, if any, may be the relation of those who have passed on to us who remain, is not uninteresting or without urgency. The vast multitudes who have been thrust into the other world from the battlefield may have had to do with this. Millions of parents and friends cannot be indifferent to the millions who were shot down in young manhood in the cruel war. Some may have regarded men as cartridges for slaughter, but not so those of affectionate heart. They long to know more about them—in many instances they desire to hear from them.

This, of course, is no new wish on the part of the bereaved, for people in every age, every land, have sought the same information. Belief in future life has been very widespread,—sometimes almost foolishly realistic. Although the Jews said little about it, there is no question but they believed in it. The New Testament unquestionably affirms this great belief.

For several years the belief in a future life, more especially a possible intercommunication with those in another world, has been subjected to the scientific treatment. This has been great gain. Hitherto people became aware of strange and mysterious experiences in connection with what seemed the other world and they interpreted them, each in their own way. Now men of exact training are investigating the phenomena. This is wise. Some things are worthy of note in this attempt.

First. Curious or even occult mental experiences are regarded as not unworthy of scientific investigation. Until within a few years, such phenomena have been treated with much contempt by scientific men. There may be "varieties of religious experience," as William James almost luridly showed us; but they belonged to religion and not science; to the mystical and erratic mind rather than the trained, exact mind. Now the field of psychology is one of the most important in the college curriculum. And there can be no question but it yields rather astounding results. John Fiske said, years ago, that the evolution of the human race in the future would be psychologic. Are we witnessing the fulfilling of his prediction?

Second. The influence of mind over mind, at long and short range, is not even in dispute now. Nothing is more common under forms not hitherto recognized. Society is largely carried on by this power, in the whole of life. Whereas once we limited personal influence to contiguity, now we cross continents and seas while sitting by our fireside or at our desk. Nor does any one incompletely acquainted with the facts merely question mental healing. Many complaints have been cured by the influence of a stronger over a weaker mind, or a consenting mind. My difference with my friends on this point is not as to the facts, but as to the universal inference drawn therefrom. If I break my arm, the thing to do is to have it set—not will it back into place. No more do we assume to set boundaries to the influence of mind over mind, except where obviously contrary to nature. Doubtless in the whole sweep of human relations we shall depend more upon this agency for results than hitherto. And some people will possess this gift beyond others. In the church, and in the medical and teaching callings, mind will count even more than information. At close range this will scarcely arouse curiosity; but not so at long range. Yet undeniably instances where one mind has influenced another more than a thousand miles away are known to the writer. Nor need we be surprised at this, for even wireless telegraphy suggests such as possibility. The co-operation of nature in such communications has not yet been wholly fathomed. Absentee treatment does not interest me, but it is not impossible, especially where the consent and co-operation of both parties are assured. The important thing to recognize is,

"That spirit with spirit may meet,
Closer is He than breathing,
Nearer than hands and feet."

Third. Whether this intercommunication is limited to people on the earth, is fairly a subject of inquiry. Sir Oliver Lodge is wholly within his rights when he inquires whether the so-called dead can and do communicate with us. There are some things which obviously point that way. Some people would be greatly helped if this could be shown beyond a peradventure. And why should it be thought of as impossible, providing the friends yonder are at least as intelligent as we are? We are trying to test out the question all the time. May not they be trying to do the same? There doubtless are difficulties, but they cannot be psychological. Spirit, whatever it may be, must be the same way anywhere and everywhere, and if there be any hindrance to communication it cannot be of the spirit.

When, therefore, Sir Oliver Lodge suggests that people in another world will reach us, if they do so, according to the laws of mind, of thought transference, we cannot object. The question is one of fact. Have they done so? Here the testimony offered so far is not convincing to an outsider, since much of it originates on the earth. Where this explanation may seem inadequate, the other does not seem worth while. At best it is distinctly personal.

Sir Oliver may be sure that he has talked with his son, but his son has not talked with me. Such personal intimacies cannot have general value. Should the inter-communications become general,—many, if not all of us, talk with our friends beyond the earth boundary,—then we should be more inclined to trust each others testimony. Meanwhile most of us will continue to "walk by faith."

JOHN G. TAYLOR.

REPRESSION OR TOLERANCE.

Many voices from people in different walks of life have been heard against the repressive measures of the government. Some even go so far as to say that the government should not round up any one except by due process of law. And this is unquestionably true, allowing for exceptions. The constitution so affirms.

But what are the exceptions? This question is simple enough in the asking, but not so simple in the answering. How far, for instance, shall we tolerate the foreigner as the advocate of an old world cause? His presence among us is on purpose to secure friends for his cause, or to disturb, perhaps overthrow, the old world government.

Among such in the past have been some of the finest souls the world has ever known. Unfortunately they are the rare exceptions. Holland has been a refuge for political and religious dissenters away back, and so has our own country. To offer these men and women freedom and even opportunity, is our high privilege. But there is a limit to attack upon a friendly power. To fix that limit is not easy. However, somebody must determine the bounds of speech in this matter. That there should be a very large liberty, goes without question.

On the other hand, aliens, who are to some extent free from our laws, cannot be allowed to hatch conspiracy on our soil against their government, even though their government deserves it. No more should they be suffered to disorganize our national institutions or even seek to destroy our Commonwealths. Citizens may go far in criticism, for party government implies this; but aliens must be more reserved. They must bridle their tongues somewhat, or the nation would bear tares in abundance. Most of the present difficulty arises from the intemperate speech of the alien, coupled with his action in the industrial world. Of course it is hard for a firebrand from Russia, or from any other infected land overseas, to understand why he cannot set fire to any brush heap wherever found. Freedom for him means license, and license in too many cases means anarchy.

What to do with the disloyal alien is the question which the government is up against just now. Patience, restraint, should unquestionably be practiced; but there is a limit to such virtues. Whether we should send some of them back to their breeding grounds is a question about which there may be disagreements, but no protest from the true American.

Some insist that the only way to handle firebrands is to persuade them to put out their own fires. That is, education and persuasion are the two great correctives. Force may crush, but it never changes; it may silence but never corrects. And yet some human beings even need force to find freedom. I do not see how force can be eliminated from human government, without endangering its foundation. Of course I mean physical force, or its equivalent. Other forms of force we use constantly.

Yet all agree that the best way to handle the alien is to make him a good American, but this does not seem possible in every case. Human nature is stubborn and perverse. The first lecture on February 1, will be given by Dr. Richard M. Smith and the subject will be "Child Welfare." A large attendance of parents and others interested in this vital subject is expected. Two talks on vaccination will follow. On February 8, Dr. E. H. Place will speak on "Smallpox and vaccination" and on February 15, Dr. H. C. Ernst will take as his subject, "Protection against infection in diseases other than smallpox." Subsequent lectures are announced as follows:

Feb. 22, Dr. K. H. Thoma,—"Diseases of the teeth in relation to systemic disturbances."

be of any value in this service it must melt. Doubtless many splendid citizens have come out of this melting pot, but many have been unchanged. If the sifted wheat came to this country in the Mayflower, many have come since then who are tares, not wheat. Let us not forget this.

The larger question of self protection on the part of government remains to perplex us. Revolution is treason or patriotism, according as it fails or succeeds. Looked at morally, it is right or wrong—never doubtful. Washington was a traitor in English eyes until the proclamation of peace, then a patriot; but from the American point of view he was a patriot all the time. Still government must protect itself or perish from the earth.

Another question recently thrust upon us is the obligation to love one's enemies. Without question this obligation is binding. Men may rejoice in being good haters, and a good hater may put tons of ginger in life; but hate does more harm to the hater than the hated.

Of course the question is, what do you mean by love. One may possess the will to do good to all men, and yet he may consent to deport some. God is love, according to high authority, but no one can question his severity in nature and, through the laws of nature, in human nature. It seems to me that love is primarily the will to do good in action. When the minister reminds us that we must love our enemies, we agree with him—when he assures us that the practice of this virtue would give us, if not a new, a vastly better world than our present one, we agree with him, but would it prevent or forbid us to send some Reds back to Russia.

Were the good people who boast of their loyalty to love their enemies over night, to do business from an altruistic instead of a mercenary motive, the high cost of living would come down. You can buy it is said, all the cane sugar you want at twenty cents a pound, while a few weeks ago you could only buy one or two pounds at eleven cents a pound. A young man said recently, business should be conducted according to moral principle; but in fact the underlying motive is avarice

Get all you can out of it,—every penny and dollar,—and love your customers as the bear loves his victim. Doubtless the young man tells a large truth, and the business men need to digest the Sermon on the Mount. Some have moved in this direction already, and are considering their employees and by and by perhaps may even reach their customers. But this would be only loving your friends. To love one's enemies is more difficult, and yet why not? Why should one hate any human being? Why should he hate, even the devil if there be any such a person? What I object to is the implication that if one loves his enemy, he must ignore his fault or his red handed conspiracy. I do not understand that Jesus hated Judas, but he did not regard him in the same light as John. Unquestionably the world should be rid of hate,—the virus which kills rather than makes alive;—but when love apologizes for crime it becomes merely spineless good nature. "Let love be without dissimulation."

JOHN G. TAYLOR.

POPULAR LECTURES ON MEDICAL SUBJECTS.

On Sunday, February 1, will be given the first of a series of popular lectures on medical subjects at the Harvard Medical School, Longwood Avenue, Boston, to which the public will be admitted free. These lectures, the subjects of which are carefully chosen with a view to giving useful information on subjects in which there is a lively public interest, will be given by physicians connected with the Harvard Medical school.

The lectures will begin each Sunday at four in the afternoon. No tickets will be needed and the only requirement which must be borne in mind is that the doors will close at 4:05, and in view of the popularity of these lectures in the past, those who wish to obtain seats should be at the auditorium in ample time. Most of the lectures will be illustrated.

The first lecture on February 1, will be given by Dr. Richard M. Smith and the subject will be "Child Welfare." A large attendance of parents and others interested in this vital subject is expected. Two talks on vaccination will follow. On February 8, Dr. E. H. Place will speak on "Smallpox and vaccination" and on February 15, Dr. H. C. Ernst will take as his subject, "Protection against infection in diseases other than smallpox." Subsequent lectures are announced as follows:

Feb. 22, Dr. K. H. Thoma,—"Diseases of the teeth in relation to systemic disturbances."

2 JANUARY 30, 1920

The Tanks

The tank inspired a wholesome fear in the enemy ranks. It lumbered irresistibly into wire entanglements and blotted them out; it charged clumsily into machine gun nests and obliterated them.

The tank was an adaptation of the Yankee farm tractor. Its strong points were stamina and endurance.

These good, American qualities are found also in

SMITH'S BREAD

The old fashioned nourishment in this loaf will build up your health and strength into stamina and endurance.

J. E. SMITH

SMITH'S BAKERY, 453 MASS. AVE., LEXINGTON

Feb. 29, Dr. F. T. Lord,—"Pneumonia."

March 7, Dr. P. G. Stiles,—"Some aspects of alcohol."

March 14, Dr. W. T. Bovie,—"New conceptions of the structure of matter."

March 21, Dr. C. K. Drinker,—"Health and industry."

March 28, Dr. C. Frothingham,—"Some points of interest in regard to medical education as brought about by the recent war."

SPECIAL NOTICE.

BOARD OF SURVEY

Whereas, the Board of Survey of the Town of Arlington, being of the opinion that public convenience and necessity, and the present and future interests of the Town of Arlington, require that the private way known as OXFORD STREET from Raleigh Street to Newell Street, be laid out as a public way and Whereas, the said Board of Survey has voted its intention to lay out said private way as a public way under the provisions of law authorizing the assessment of betterments, notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be given on said intention of the Board in the Selectmen's Room, Town Hall, on Tuesday evening, February 3rd, 1920, at eight o'clock.

Per Order of the Board of Survey.

By Thomas J. Robinson, Clerk.

23jan2w

SPECIAL NOTICE.

BOARD OF SURVEY

Whereas, the Board of Survey of the Town of Arlington being of the opinion that public convenience and necessity and the present and future interests of the Town of Arlington, require that the private way known as HAROLD STREET from Raleigh Street to Broadway, be laid out as a public way and Whereas, the said Board of Survey has voted its intention to lay out said private way as a public way under the provisions of law authorizing the assessment of betterments, notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be given on said intention of the Board in the Selectmen's Room, Town Hall on Tuesday evening, February 3rd, 1920 at 8.10 o'clock.

Per Order of the Board of Survey.

By Thomas J. Robinson, Clerk.

23jan2w

SPECIAL NOTICE.

BOARD OF SURVEY

Whereas, the Board of Survey of the Town of Arlington being of the opinion that public convenience and necessity and the present and future interests of the Town of Arlington, require that the private way known as OAK KNOLL from Pleasant Street about 340 feet northwesterly, should be laid out as a public way and Whereas, the said Board of Survey has voted its intention to lay out said private way as a public way under the provisions of law authorizing the assessment of betterments, notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be given on said intention of the Board in the Selectmen's Room, Town Hall, on Tuesday evening, February 3rd, 1920, at 8.30 o'clock.

Per Order of the Board of Survey.

By Thomas J. Robinson, Clerk.

23jan2w

SPECIAL NOTICE.

BOARD OF SURVEY

Whereas, the Board of Survey of the Town of Arlington, being of the opinion that public convenience and necessity, and the present and future interests of the Town of Arlington, require that the private way known as RALEIGH STREET from Oxford Street to Grafton Street, be laid out as a public way and Whereas, the said Board of Survey has voted its intention to lay out said private way as a public way under the provisions of law authorizing the assessment of betterments, notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be given on said intention of the Board in the Selectmen's Room, Town Hall, on Tuesday evening, February 3rd, 1920, at 8.40 o'clock.

Per Order of the Board of Survey.

By Thomas J. Robinson, Clerk.

23jan2w

H. E. GAMESTER

CARPENTER and BUILDER

Residence 287 Broadway Office 685 Mass. Ave.

Shop : Medford St (rear of Hartwell's)

Telephone Connection

MARCEL WAVING

Expert Operator

CALL ARLINGTON 2163-W

34	Milton	92
74	Needham	94
75	Needham Heights	58
71	Newton	59
66	Newton Centre	61
17	Newton Highlands	62
78	Newton Lower Falls	64
9	Newton Upper Falls	60
84	North Post	14
35	North Post Boxes	12
46	North Weymouth	91
38	Quincy	68
39	Readville	37
40	Revere	51
41	Roslindale	31
29	Roxbury	19
50	Roxbury Crossing	20
67	Somerville	42
47	South Boston	27
22	South Braintree	85
24	South Weymouth	90
28	Station A	18
87	Stoneham	80
89	Upshams Corner	25
11	Waban	68
10	Waltham	54
49	Watertown	72
21	Waverly	79

LEXINGTON GIRL SCOUTS.

The following is a brief history of the activities of Troop Two, Lexington, since its formation in 1917.

During the month of September, 1917, Miss Muriel Childs as captain and Miss Dorothy Vickery (Reed) as Lieutenant, organized the second troop of Girl Scouts of Lexington beginning with twelve girls.

At first the meetings were held either at the garage of one of the girls, or at the Captain's home. During the meetings the girls helped in war work by knitting for the Red Cross. Soon they had completed a gaily colored afghan, which they sent with some scrap books to a children's hospital in Switzerland. The Troop helped in many public events and was always ready to be called upon.

Miss Childs worked alone the second year, and yet she had enrolled twenty-four girls, forming patrols. The meetings were now held in Cary Hall, and the new opening was used. All Scouts try to make themselves helpful, doing so by giving a Xmas dinner, trees, clothes and toys to some of the poor families of the town.

In the spring the Scouts went on several hikes. On the nineteenth of April the two groups joined together and held a canteen, the proceeds amounting to eighty-five dollars. On the 14th of June, they marched in the Welcome Home parade and made a splendid showing.

At the beginning of this fall, both troops came to the High school Hall and held their meetings together every other Tuesday. This system is proving very satisfactory because things can be done on a large scale and more spirit and enthusiasm is aroused.

Some very interesting folk dancing and drill work has been started. On the alternating Tuesday, there is usually a hike, hare and hound chase, or some trip of interest and benefit to the girls. At present Troop Two is getting ready to give a play which one of the Scouts has written.

SCOUT MOAKLEY.

OLD BELFRY CLUB.

The following give Lexington the make-up of the several teams competing for honors on the alleys of the club:

Team No. 1 Miss Helen Burnett, Mr. Ashton Little, Miss Mary Valentine, Mr. Eugene Bramhall, Miss Helen Locke, Mr. Gardner Tilton.

Team No. 2 Mrs. Ryder, Mr. Ryder, Mrs. Lamont, Mr. Lamont, Mrs. Parsons, Mr. Parsons.

Team No. 3 Miss Katherine Wiswell, Mr. Hollis Webster, Miss Frances Locke, Mr. Clayton G. Locke, Miss Louise Wright, Dr. J. O. Tilton.

Team No. 4 Mrs. B. G. Williams, Mr. B. G. Williams, Mrs. Lowe, Mr. Lowe, Mrs. Beatty, Mr. Beatty.

Team No. 5 Mrs. Pierce, Mr. Pierce, Mrs. Tower, Mr. Tower, Mrs. Proctor, Mr. Proctor.

Team No. 6 Miss Dixon, H. A. Williams, Mrs. Andrews, Mr. Andrews, Mrs. Kelly, Mr. T. C. Kelly.

Team No. 7 Mrs. Ingalls, Mr. Ingalls, Mrs. Hopkins, Mr. Hopkins, Mrs. G. E. Smith, Mr. G. E. Smith.

Team No. 8 Mrs. J. O. Richards, Mr. J. O. Richards, Miss Regester, Mr. J. G. Robertson, Mr. Wheeler, Mr. Wheeler.

Team No. 9 Mrs. L. L. Crane, Mr. C. W. Childs, Mrs. H. S. Hall, Mr. L. L. Crane, Mrs. C. W. Childs, Mr. R. W. Little.

Team No. 10 Mrs. Redman, Mr. Redman, Mrs. Glidden, Mr. Glidden, Mrs. J. W. Smith, Mr. J. W. Smith.

Team No. 11 Mrs. Ellis, Mr. Ellis, Mrs. M. R. Horton, Dr. Day, Mrs. Grieves, Mr. Grieves.

Team No. 12 Mrs. S. R. Kelley, Mr. J. S. Smith, Mrs. Barbour, Mr. Barbour, Mrs. Worthen, Mr. Worthen.

Team No. 13 Mrs. Kimball, Mr. Kimball, Mrs. Fish, Mr. Fish, Mrs. Bond, Mr. Bond.

Team No. 14 Mrs. Lewis, Mr. Lewis, Mrs. Mulliken, Mr. Mulliken, Mrs. Ballard, Mr. Ballard.

Team No. 15 Miss A. F. Kraetzer, H. S. O. Nichols, Mrs. Perry, Mr. Perry, Mr. McComber, Mrs. Macomber.

Team No. 16 Mrs. Nourse, Mr. Nourse, Mrs. L. E. Smith, Mr. L. E. Smith, Mrs. Pike, Mr. Pike.

CARY MEMORIAL LIBRARY.

JANUARY ACCESSIONS.

1920

NON FICTION.

Abbott, L. F. Impressions of Theodore Roosevelt.

Adams, B. Emancipation of Massachusetts.

Bairnsfather, B. From Mud to Mutti.

Belasco, D. The theatre through its stage door.

Brown, F. C. Letters and lettering.

Cabot, R. C. Social work.

Chamberlain, T. G. Why we fought.

Cousins, F. Colonial architecture of Salem.

Doyle, A. C. Vital message.

Drinkwater, J. Abraham Lincoln.

Jones, R. M. Story of George Fox.

Judd, C. H. Psychology of High school subjects.

King, B. Abolishing of death.

Leverhulme, Lord. Six-hour day.

Lowe, C. Confessions of a social secretary.

Macpherson, J. Poems of Ossian.

Mortaine, J. Guynemer, the ace of aces.

O'Brien, F. White shadows in the South seas.

Orgin, M. J. Soul of the Russian revolution.

Sharp, E. A. Lyra Celtica.

Spargo, J. Bolshevism.

Strachey, L. Eminent Victorians.

Turner, E. R. Ireland and England.

Walsh, J. J. Health through will power.

FICTION.

Abdullah, A. Man on horseback.

Bacheller, I. A man for the ages.

Bottome, P. Servant of reality.

Brainerd, E. H. Our little old lady.

Castle, A. New wine.

Chamberlain, G. A. Not all the king's horses.

Dawson, C. Test of scarlet.

Gregory, S. Yellow leaf.

Irwin, I. H. Happy years.

Jerome, J. K. All roads lead to Calvary.

Johnston, M. Michael Forth.

Malot, L. Deadham Hard.

Masefield, J. Tarpaulin master.

Oppenheim, E. P. Great impersonation.

Tracy, L. Bartlett mystery.

BOOKS FOR YOUNGER READERS.

Davies, M. C. Little freckled person.

Mathews, F. K. ed. Boy scout's year book.

Perkins, L. F. Scotch twins.

Pyle, H. Story of the champions of the Round Table.

Richards, L. E. Joan of Arc.

Townsend, R. M. Journey to the garden gate.

Wade, M. H. Leaders to liberty.

SIXTH ANNUAL RE-UNION.

The sixth annual re-union of the members of St. James Parish, Arlington Heights, was held in the Town Hall, last Friday evening, the affair being a success in every way. The attendance was very large and not only made up of members of this parish, but many former parishioners and former friends in the mother parish at the center of the town. The curate of the church, Rev. Rudolph M. Tuscher, had general charge of the affair and he was ably assisted by a good working committee.

During the early evening the parishioners and their friends were received by a committee made up of Selectman Thomas J. Donnelly chairman, Patrick Hurley, Timothy O'Leary Edward McGrath, William Kenniston, Patrick Canniff, Charles F. Ford, Richard Barry, William Meehan, Thomas Murphy, Arthur White, John H. Kennedy, Dr. P. E. Deehan, Dr. Francis J. Talty, Hon. Augustine Daley, Joseph L. Dwyer, P. J. Crosby, Charles McConnell, James Day, J. J. Sweeney, Thomas Morris, John Fermoyle, James Fermoyle, William Cox, Daniel Sullivan, William Kenney, George Blafer, Patrick Toye, Patrick Furdon, Herman McManus, Charles Cashman, Mrs. Rose McNamara, Mrs. Hannah Dacey, Mrs. Johanna Keefe, Miss May Dempsey, Miss Angie McManus, William P. Slattery and Mrs. Julia White.

In the spring the Scouts went on several hikes. On the nineteenth of April the two groups joined together and held a canteen, the proceeds amounting to eighty-five dollars. On the 14th of June, they marched in the Welcome Home parade and made a splendid showing.

At the beginning of this fall, both troops came to the High school Hall and held their meetings together every other Tuesday. This system is proving very satisfactory because things can be done on a large scale and more spirit and enthusiasm is aroused.

Some very interesting folk dancing and drill work has been started. On the alternating Tuesday, there is usually a hike, hare and hound chase, or some trip of interest and benefit to the girls. At present Troop Two is getting ready to give a play which one of the Scouts has written.

SCOUT MOAKLEY.

OLD BELFRY CLUB.

The following give Lexington the make-up of the several teams competing for honors on the alleys of the club:

Team No. 1 Miss Helen Burnett, Mr. Ashton Little, Miss Mary Valentine, Mr. Eugene Bramhall, Miss Helen Locke, Mr. Gardner Tilton.

Team No. 2 Mrs. Ryder, Mr. Ryder, Mrs. Lamont, Mr. Lamont, Mrs. Parsons, Mr. Parsons.

Team No. 3 Miss Katherine Wiswell, Mr. Hollis Webster, Miss Frances Locke, Mr. Clayton G. Locke, Miss Louise Wright, Dr. J. O. Tilton.

Team No. 4 Mrs. B. G. Williams, Mr. B. G. Williams, Mrs. Lowe, Mr. Lowe, Mrs. Beatty, Mr. Beatty.

Team No. 5 Mrs. Pierce, Mr. Pierce, Mrs. Tower, Mr. Tower, Mrs. Proctor, Mr. Proctor.

Team No. 6 Miss Dixon, H. A. Williams, Mrs. Andrews, Mr. Andrews, Mrs. Kelly, Mr. T. C. Kelly.

Team No. 7 Mrs. Ingalls, Mr. Ingalls, Mrs. Hopkins, Mr. Hopkins, Mrs. G. E. Smith, Mr. G. E. Smith.

Team No. 8 Mrs. J. O. Richards, Mr. J. O. Richards, Miss Regester, Mr. J. G. Robertson, Mr. Wheeler, Mr. Wheeler.

Team No. 9 Mrs. L. L. Crane, Mr. C. W. Childs, Mrs. H. S. Hall, Mr. L. L. Crane, Mrs. C. W. Childs, Mr. R. W. Little.

Team No. 10 Mrs. Redman, Mr. Redman, Mrs. Glidden, Mr. Glidden, Mrs. J. W. Smith, Mr. J. W. Smith.

Team No. 11 Mrs. Ellis, Mr. Ellis, Mrs. M. R. Horton, Dr. Day, Mrs. Grieves, Mr. Grieves.

Team No. 12 Mrs. S. R. Kelley, Mr. J. S. Smith, Mrs. Barbour, Mr. Barbour, Mrs. Worthen, Mr. Worthen.

Team No. 13 Mrs. Kimball, Mr. Kimball, Mrs. Fish, Mr. Fish, Mrs. Bond, Mr. Bond.

Team No. 14 Mrs. Lewis, Mr. Lewis, Mrs. Mulliken, Mr. Mulliken, Mrs. Ballard, Mr. Ballard.

Team No. 15 Miss A. F. Kraetzer, H. S. O. Nichols, Mrs. Perry, Mr. Perry, Mr. McComber, Mrs. Macomber.

Team No. 16 Mrs. Nourse, Mr. Nourse, Mrs. L. E. Smith, Mr. L. E. Smith, Mrs. Pike, Mr. Pike.

CARY MEMORIAL LIBRARY.

JANUARY ACCESSIONS.

1920

NON FICTION.

Abbott, L. F. Impressions of Theodore Roosevelt.

Adams, B. Emancipation of Massachusetts.

Bairnsfather, B. From Mud to Mutti.

Belasco, D. The theatre through its stage door.

Brown, F. C. Letters and lettering.

Cabot, R. C. Social work.

Chamberlain, T. G. Why we fought.

Cousins, F. Colonial architecture of Salem.

Doyle, A. C. Vital message.

Drinkwater, J. Abraham Lincoln.

Jones, R. M. Story of George Fox.

Judd, C. H. Psychology of High school subjects.

King, B. Abolishing of death.

Leverhulme, Lord. Six-hour day.

Lowe, C. Confessions of a social secretary.

Macpherson, J. Poems of Ossian.

Mortaine, J. Guynemer, the ace of aces.

O'Brien, F. White shadows in the South seas.

Orgin, M. J. Soul of the Russian revolution.

Sharp, E. A. Lyra Celtica.

Spargo, J. Bolshevism.

Strachey, L. Eminent Victorians.

Turner, E. R. Ireland and England.

Walsh, J. J. Health through will power.

FICTION.

Abdullah, A. Man on horseback.

Bacheller, I. A man for the ages.

Bottome, P. Servant of reality.

Brainerd, E. H. Our little old lady.

Castle, A. New wine.

Chamberlain, G. A. Not all the king's horses.

Dawson, C. Test of scarlet.

Gregory, S. Yellow leaf.

Irwin, I. H. Happy years.

Jerome, J. K. All roads lead to Calvary.

Johnston, M. Michael Forth.

Malot, L. Deadham Hard.

Masefield, J. Tarpaulin master.

Oppenheim, E. P. Great impersonation.

WALL PAPERS

a complete line of choice patterns to select from.

Right in Lexington at less than Boston prices.

C. E. BENTLEY

PAPERHANGER

7 Shirley St. Lexington

Telephone 358-M

COAL

LEXINGTON COAL CO.

445 MASS. AVENUE, LEXINGTON, MASS.

LESTER E. SMITH

GROCERIES—PROVISIONS—FRUITS

MEATS AND FRESH FISH

489-93 MASS. AVENUE, LEXINGTON, MASS.

TELEPHONES 327 328, 426.

CHOICE CUTS HEAVY WESTERN BEEF
NEW ENGLAND DRESSED LAMB MILK FED VEAL
FRESH PIG PORK

Arlington Advocate

OFFICE
Fowle's Block, Mass. Avenue,
Arlington, Mass.

Published Every Friday By

C. S. PARKER & SON

Publishers

CHARLES S. PARKER, Editor
MISS GRACE PARKER, Assistant
Reporters

John E. Hendrick. J. J. Buck.
Miss Ruth W. Hamilton.

Subscription $2.50 Single copies 6c.

Arlington, January 30, 1920.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Price for one week, (Per inch) $1.00
25 cents per week afterwards.
One-half inch 50c when cash accompanies order. Otherwise 60 cents.

Entered at the Arlington Station, Boston post office as second class matter.

UNDESIRABLE ALIENS.

The recent deportation of undesirable aliens and controversies over government action provoked by the course pursued, has drawn from Secretary Wilson an illuminating document given out last Saturday. He procured the constitution of the Communist party and by it proved that it was intimately affiliated with that foreign association known as "Communist Internationale," whose announced purpose is wholly revolutionary. Secretary Wilson made copious quotations to show that deportations were warranted by facts disclosed in his message to the New York officials as follows:

"From these quotations and numerous other statements in the manifesto, not here quoted, it is apparent that the Communist Party of America is not merely a political party seeking the control of affairs of state, but a revolutionary party seeking to conquer and destroy the state in open combat. And the only conclusion is that the Communist Party of America is an organization that believes in, teaches and advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the government of the United States.

"Your memorandum of Jan. 17, 1920, recommending that the department issue its warrant for the deportation of Englebert Preis, such deportation to be to Austria, at government expense, is hereby approved. Approximately 3000 of 3600 aliens taken into custody during recent nation-wide round-ups of radicals are "perfect" cases for deportation as a result of Secretary Wilson's decision that the Communist and Communist Labor parties are revolutionary within the meaning of the deportation law.

U. S. ARMY SHOULD HAVE
ONE VAST SCHOOL.

Maj.-Gen. Clarence R. Edwards in his recent address at Southboro, before the Leo L. Bagley Post 161 of the American Legion, discussed universal military training, and told some incidents of the ten Southboro men at the front in the 26th Division. He pointed out that three months were far too short a time to give a man training that would be of lasting benefit and that one year was the shortest time anything of value could be accomplished. He said that draft boards all over the country were shocked at the number of illiterates and men of poor physical development who came before them. He advocated an army to be made one vast school in which particular attention should be paid to a man's physical and moral development and the inculcation of the principles of citizenship. He said severe military training did not enter into his scheme beyond the point of teaching a man how to use his weapons and instilling into him the discipline necessary to gain the objective.

In this connection it is interesting to note that the Military Committee of Congress has voted by a large majority to report a bill providing for compulsory military training for all males between the ages of 18 and 21.

THOU-SHALT NOT.

That which is unlawful under the nation-wide prohibition law that became effective on January 16, has been summarized into the following brief paragraphs:

To buy or sell a drink anywhere except for sacramental or medicinal purposes.

To give or take a drink anywhere except in the home of the man who owns it.

To keep any liquor in storage anywhere but your own home.

To try to get such reserves out of storage.

To carry a pocket flask.

To have more than two drinking residences—one in the country and one in the city.

To restock your home supply when it runs out.

To manufacture anything above one-half of one per cent in your home.

To move your home supply from one house to another without obtaining a permit. To get this you must prove that you came by the supply before July 1, 1919.

To display any liquor signs or advertisements on your premises.

To buy, sell or use a home still or any other device for making liquor in the home.

To buy or sell any formulas or receipts for home-made liquor.

To make a present of a bottle of liquor to a friend.

To receive such a present from a friend.

[Correspondence.]

FEED THE BIRDS.

Of all God's creatures the birds are the truest representatives of joy and freedom, for the earth is theirs and the heavens above and the water beneath.

They sing just as cheerily on the dark days as on the days when the bright sun is shining.

Who has not heard the robins chukking in the rain? They begin and end the day with a song of joy and gratitude for the little bits that have come their way, having no thought of the morrow,—what they shall eat or wherewithal they shall be clothed. We have been told how in No-Man's-Land, the birds built their nests in the corners of the wire entanglements, where amid the din and carnage they sang as merrily as when in the peaceful quiet forests. A big shell bursts quite near and they simply fly away to the nearest tree, singing as they go. They are no part of the human dream of fear; they see and know only those things that are of God,—the beautiful trees, the blue sky and the green fields.

There is no music that reaches the very depths of our consciousness as do the first songs of the warblers when they come back to us in the early spring, announcing the coming of the "golden days of summer and the harvests of the autumn.

Leading entomologists estimate that insects cause an annual loss of at least two hundred million dollars to the agricultural interests of the United States. This, of course, seems incredible, but is based upon reliable statistics. But, if insects are the natural enemies of vegetation, birds are the natural enemies of insects. Consider for a moment what the birds are doing for us any summer day.

Mr. E. H. Forbes, a well known entomologist, states that the stomachs of four Chickadees contained one thousand and twenty-eight eggs of the cankerworm. The stomachs of four other birds of the same species contained about six hundred eggs and one hundred and five female moths of the cankerworm. The average number of eggs found in twenty of these moths was one hundred and eighty-five; and as it is estimated that a Chickadee may eat thirty female cankerworm moths per day during the twenty-five days which these moths crawl up trees, it follows that in this period each Chickadee would destroy one hundred and thirty eight thousand seven hundred and fifty eggs of this noxious insect.

No end of facts could be stated showing why these little appreciated friends of the agriculturalist and of all of us should be protected and encouraged. So in the cold stormy days of winter, their time of need, give from your abundance. "Giving does not impoverish," and you will be repaid measure for measure and overflowing. It takes only a few moments to scatter the particles of a crumbled muffin or piece of bread in your door yard when you step out of the door in the morning or to hang a piece of suet by a string to a nearby tree. Then watch the joy of these charming and helpful creatures when they discover the table that you have prepared for them. Their happiness and gratitude will be your reward.

GEORGE PARKER BINGHAM.
ARLINGTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The Arlington Historical Society met in the vestry of the First Parish church, Monday evening, Jan. 26, at eight o'clock. It was opened and presided over by Judge Parmenter. After a brief business meeting, Mrs. Edward C. Turner presented a carefully prepared and interesting story of her uncle, Capt. Charles B. Pendleton, who from early boyhood until 1862, was connected with the merchant marine. He began his career as a cabin boy at the age of twelve years. When quite a young man he attained the command of a large packet ship plying between New York and Liverpool. In the course of his career in command of vessels he made several notable rescues on the sea, which were properly acknowledged and recognized by valuable presents by different cities and individuals, but he remained unremunerated by the government. He never made any claim, however, for his financial loss nor for services rendered. It is impossible to brief the required limits of the story as told by Mrs. Turner. It depicted a young man resolving to live his life on a high plane, accomplishing his purpose splendidly.

Mrs. H. H. Homer supplemented this story with a paper on "Affairs in Boston prior to and during the opening years of the Revolution," dictated to Rev. Frederick Gray of the Bulfinch Street church, by his grandmother, Mary Turrell.

The following gifts were received:—from the late Mrs. Almira T. Whittemore, "Narrative of the Fessenden family" (typewritten copy), written by Mrs. Almira T. Fessenden Whittemore and read before the society, February 21, 1910; town warrant 1858; order of exercises and dedication of the old Russell school, West Cambridge, Tuesday, December 11, 1860, at 9 p. m.; letter from Secretary William E. Parmenter to Mrs. E. A. Whittemore, thanking her for the hymn written for the dedication of the Russell school. From Miss Edith Rice, order of services December 10, 1919, reception of minister, Rev. H. S. Potter, D. D., Arlington Baptist church. From the Red Cross committee, collection of posters used in the Red Cross drive, November, 1919. From Mr. Warren, A. Peirce, two newspapers; the Boston Intelligencer and Evening Gazette, May 6, 1820, edited by William W. Clapp, Boston, containing advertisement of school for young ladies conducted by Miss Mary Eliza Hayes, West Cambridge, Mass. Also Boston Intelligencer, January 10, 1818, containing an advertisement for academy for young ladies, Mr. Warren Peirce, principal, north side of Market 87, Boston, Mass. From Mrs. E. C. Turner, collection of old pamphlets. From the Lexington Historical Society, "The Historical Register" for December, 1919. At the close of the meeting remarks on the papers read, were made by Rev. S. C. Bushnell, Mr. Edward S. Fessenden and Judge Parmenter.

Although it is much like locking the doors after the horse is stolen, it is gratifying to note that legislation is being enacted that will safeguard the future. The U. S. Senate, by a vote of 36 to 14, on Monday passed the "Americanization" bill which requires all residents of the United States of 16 to 31 years of age, not mentally or physically disqualified, and all alien residents between the ages of 16 and 45 who cannot speak, read or write English, to attend school not less than 200 hours a year.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

The "January thaw" of this year was hardly enough to warrant the name.

Boston firemen, by a majority vote of 909, have voted to surrender the A. F. L. charter.

A strike by the freight handlers in Boston has badly handicapped business this week.

The woman suffrage amendment to the U. S. Constitution was ratified by the Wyoming Legislature on Monday.

The storms on the Atlantic last week, disabled three big steamships which have come slowly into port this week.

Jan. 27 was the seventieth anniversary of the birth of Samuel Gompers, head of the American Federation of Labor.

This has been a busy week for the Girl Scouts engaged in raising a $100,000 fund to carry forward their educational work.

Gov. Holcomb of Conn. has been petitioned to call a special Legislature to act on the woman suffrage amendment to the U. S. Constitution.

The murder of patrolman Clancy in Boston, last week, has led to issuing an order to strictly enforce all regulations applying to dance halls, and increasing the number of officers at such places.

The letter of Gov. Coolidge, plainly stating he was not a candidate for the Republican nomination for President at least develops the fact that he is a man measuring up to the requirements of that high office.

Chairman Hayes of the Republican National Committee has named an advisory committee of 171 members, 19 of whom are women. Senator Lodge and Speaker Gillette are the most prominent names of Mass. men.

Influenza in epidemic form, has made its appearance in several states, especially in New York city and Chicago. Keep cool, well nourished, go to bed at first intimation of attack; summon a physician immediately.

Secretary of Agriculture David F. Houston, has been transferred by President Wilson from that place in his cabinet to the treasury department, to fill the place vacated by Carter Glass to become Senator from Virginia. Edward L. Meredith, editor of a farmer's magazine, is given the Agricultural position.

Deaths

BARRY—In Arlington, Jan. 27, John Barry, husband of Catherine Barry of 64 Broadway, aged 62 years.

CONKLIN—In Arlington, Jan. 23, Roscoe B., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe C. Conklin of 44 Gray street, aged 8 years, 10 months, 28 days.

MACMILLIN—In Arlington, Jan. 25, Charles M. Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. MacMillin of 95 Jason street, aged 10 years, 6 months, 28 days.

SYLVESTER—In Arlington, Jan. 26, Fannie F., wife of Harry E. Sylvester, of Malden, aged 58 years, 8 months, 16 days.

WANTED—A woman to do washing once a week. Apply to Mrs. Edward G. Wheaton, 249 Mass. avenue, Lexington. Tel. Lex. 53-M. 30jan1w

WANTED—A neat capable maid for general house work in family of two. Apply to Mrs. C. P. Johnson, 25 Winthrop road, Lexington. Tel. Lex. 53-M. 30jan1w

LOST—In Lexington, or on cars from Harvard Square to Lexington a gold Knights Templar charm. Kindly return to Advocate office and receive reward.

FOR SALE—Fine quality black pony skin short coat, loose back, with black fox collar and cuffs. Size 38. Sale price $75. Apply to Mrs. E. L. Jordan, 148 Mass. avenue, Arlington. Tel. mornings Arl. 1088-M. 30jan1w

YOUNG LADY—Living in Arlington centre, would like work in store or doctor's or dentist's office. Part or full time. Call Arl. 2082-M. 30jan1w

FOR SALE—A single house, 9 rooms, bath; hot and cold water; open plumbing, furnace, hardwood floors, open fireplace, gas and electricity; asphalt walk. Near centre. Apply to owner, 755 Mass. avenue, Arlington. Mass. 30jan1w

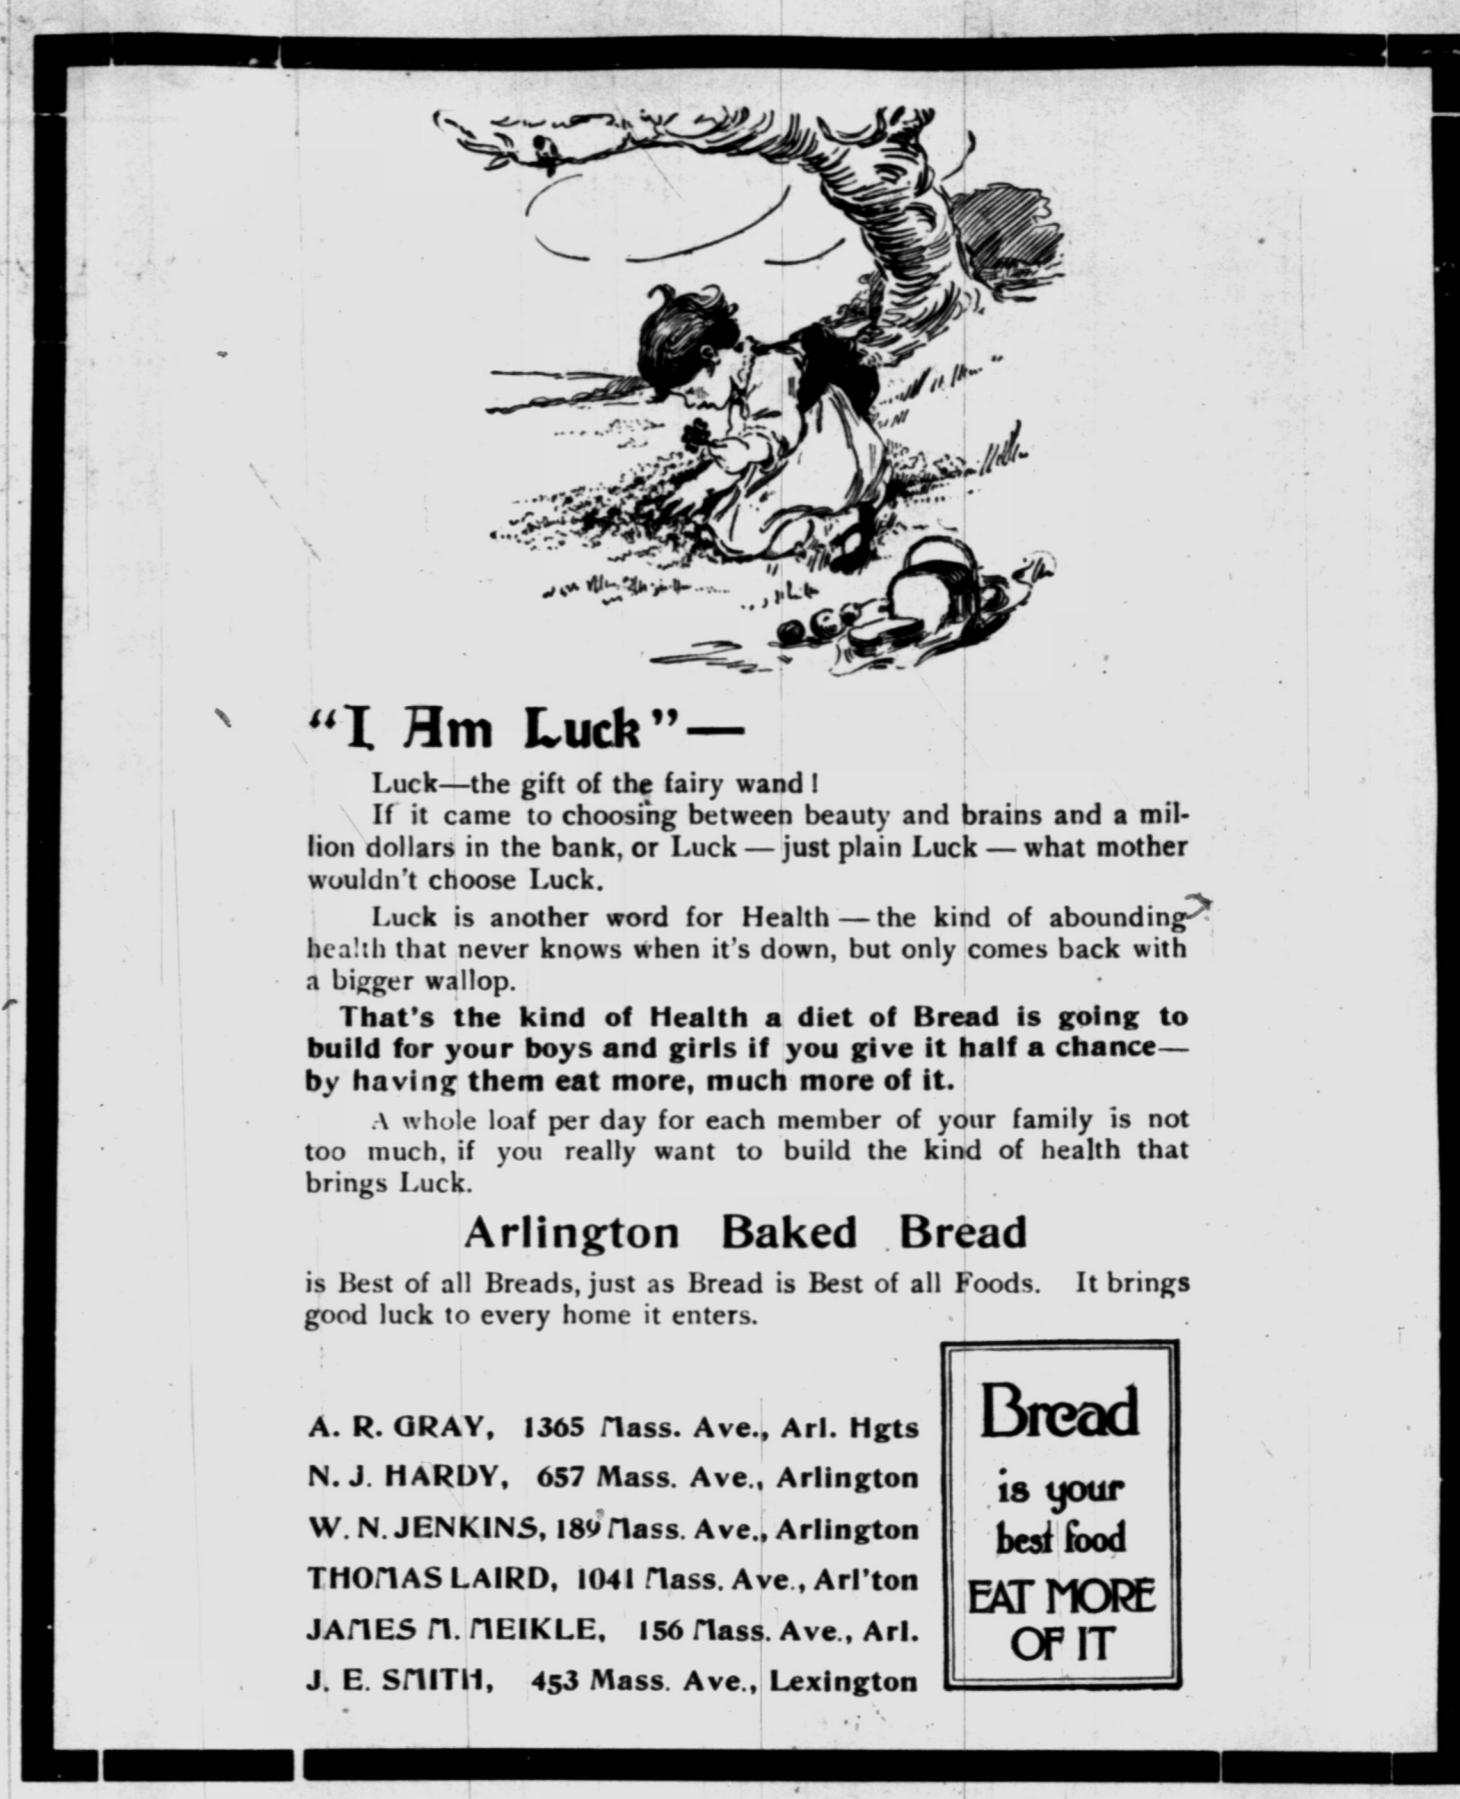

LOST—Book No. 25657 of Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank. Application has been made for payment of the account in accordance with Section 40, Chapter 590 of the Acts of 1908, as amended. Payment has been stopped.

LOST—Book No. 25036 of Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank. Application has been made for payment of the account in accordance with Section 40, Chapter 590 of the Acts of 1908, as amended. Payment has been stopped.

WANTED—A young girl who lives at home for light housework and sewing. I. M. David, 14 Irving street, Arlington. Tel. Arl. 1105-R. or address S. W., Advocate Office. 30jan1w

FOR SALE—A new six room house, all conveniences. Inquire of A. C. Washburn, All. Tel. Lex. 142-M. 30jan1w

TO LET—A furnished, heated room in pleasant location. Teacher or one in business preferred. Meals if desired. Telephone Arl. 1105-R. or address S. W., Advocate Office. 30jan1w

"I Am Luck"—

Luck—the gift of the fairy wand!

If it came to choosing between beauty and brains and a million dollars in the bank, or Luck—just plain Luck—what mother wouldn't choose Luck.

Luck is another word for Health—the kind of abounding health that never knows when it's down, but only comes back with a bigger wallop.

That's the kind of Health a diet of Bread is going to build for your boys and girls if you give it half a chance—by having them eat more, much more of it.

A whole loaf per day for each member of your family is not too much, if you really want to build the kind of health that brings Luck.

Arlington Baked Bread is Best of all Breads, just as Bread is Best of all Foods. It brings good luck to every home it enters.

Bread is your best food
EAT MORE OF IT

Fresh Bread and Rolls Every Day

Hardy's Doughnuts a Specialty

N. J. HARDY, THE CATERER

657 Mass. Avenue, ARLINGTON.

TELEPHONE ARL. 77

GIVE YOUR WIFE A REAL HOME
not merely a place to eat and sleep. She will be more delighted than words can tell. You can do it easily enough by our plan which makes your money buy a deed to a home instead of worthless scraps of paper. Come and talk it over. Bring the wife with you. She is an equal partner with you in any home making proposition.

R. WALTER HILLIARD
REAL ESTATE
679 Mass. Ave., Arlington

CONFECTIONERY, CHOCOLATE AND HARD CANDY

SALTED NUTS

Thermos Bottles and Lunch Outfits

$2.50 to $5.50

AT OUR SODA FOUNTAIN

College Ices, all kinds; Banana Splits; Ice Cream Sodas

Try our own make.

Strawberry, Vanilla and Chocolate Ice Cream to take home.

Extra fine. 60c quart. No Tax.

GROSSMITH'S COR. PHARMACY
ARLINGTON CENTRE

CLARK Bros.

COAL=GRAIN

2464 Mass

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS.
MOTHER GOOSE SOCIAL.

The Friday Social Club added another triumph to its list of successful social achievements, when a "Mother Goose Social," was given at Park Avenue Congregational church on Friday evening, Jan. 23. Many handsome and artistic costumes were seen in the audience and for those not attending in costume, pretty paper caps and ruffs were provided. The entertainment was in charge of Mrs. Luther Sherman and, with her originality of ideas, success was assured. The program opened with a pretty scene from Mother Goose's Book, "Sing a song of sixpence."

Mr. George H. Averill represented the king, seated in a comfortable chair, holding a huge pie from which the four and twenty blackbirds had evidently just emerged. A number of girls in black crepe paper costumes and with whistles on which they blew, made a realistic effect, as they flapped their wings. Mrs. Clark impersonated Mother Goose, carrying a large goose under her arm, which was beautifully created from crepe paper and was the work of Mrs. Frank W. Garrett. Mother Goose read the verses for those taking the various parts. Mrs. Edward L. Shin made a very handsome Mistress Mary; Mr. Paul Bennett amused the audience with his costume and interpretation of "Ride a cock horse;" Mr. and Mrs. Millet Lloyd enacted the verses, "Where are you going my pretty maid?" Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Snow won deserved applause in "Old woman, shall we go shearing?" Mrs. Oscar Schenzer took the part of little Miss Muffet and when it came time for the entrance of the spider and a frying pan (spider) was lowered beside her, her very realistic scream brought down the house. She was obliged to repeat it. Mrs. George Wood made a splendid Mother Hubbard. Great amusement was caused when Jack Spratt and his wife (Mr. Norval Bacon and Mrs. Clarence Johnson) appeared and contributed to the conservation plan by "licking the platter clean." Mrs. Bert S. Currier made a beautiful Queen of Hearts, while Mr. Paul Bennett, as Knave, stole a tray of nice looking tarts. Mr. C. Frederic Evans was little Jack Horner, while Mr. Harvey Bodwell, as Simple Simon, read verses containing local hits composed by Mrs. Sherman. Mrs. S. E. Stott in old fashioned dress, rocking cradle of olden times sang "Rock-a-baby," accompanied in the chorus by Mr. Herbert Hicks. Mr. George H. Averill was "old King Cole" and his fiddlers three, Mr. Harry Tinkham Heiman Doane and Mrs. Oscar Schenzer, the last named substituting for Mr. Luther Sherman, who was called to New York unexpectedly. Little Boy Blue was represented by Millet Lloyd, the old woman who went to the market by Mrs. Joseph Holmes, with Mr. Bert Currier was peddler, while Mrs. William Drouet made a most amusing "Mary had a little lamb." Jack and Jill, impersonated by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hicks, brought the entertainment to a close!

The guests then made their way to the dinner room, where Mrs. Frederick Brackett, chairman, assisted by her committee Mrs. Clarence Coolidge, Mrs. Charles Holmes, Mrs. John Phillips, Mrs. Charles Harvey, Mrs. George Lloyd and Mrs. William McNeal, was in charge. The tables were beautifully arranged with floral decorations, pink sweet peas, frosia, yellow marigolds and greenery, being illuminated with pink candles. Mrs. William McNeal had charge of the coffee and there was an abundance of cake, turnovers and tarts of every variety and salted peanuts. The evening was a success in every way. Many new comers in this vicinity attended and a community spirit pervaded. Mrs. C. F. Evans was accompanist during the program.

The Locke School Association will meet at Locke school Hall, Tuesday evening, at eight o'clock. Community singing, moving pictures and a possible speaker.

—This Friday evening the Epworth League of the Methodist church will entertain the Epworth League of Calvary Methodist church at a social.

The Arlington Heights Study Club has voted to endorse a state movement for permanent improvement and standard of motion pictures and the conditions under which they are presented in Mass. Mr. Forsyth, chairman of the executive committee, has presented the motion for endorsement to clubs in the state.

The Foreign Missionary society of Park Avenue Congregational church met Friday afternoon, Jan. 23, in the church. The president, Mrs. George H. Averill, presided over the meeting. The subject of the afternoon was "India," with Mrs. Walter Jones and Mrs. George Wood, speakers, who handled an interesting subject in a most able manner. Mrs. Wood touched on the general conditions among the women and children especially, the seclusion of the women, making it impossible for the attendance of male physicians in times of sickness. Mrs. Jones gave an account of the Women's hospitals and dispensaries. Both speakers emphasized the need of missionaries to train women physicians and nurses to meet this situation. Refreshments in charge of Mrs. Frank W. Garrett, were served.

HAVE U ANY
Furniture, Car. etc. Stoves or Ice
Chests or Other Merchandise to sell?
WE PAY THE HIGHEST CASH PRICES
CALL, WRITE OR
PHONE SOMERVILLE 5423-M
UNION SQUARE FURNITURE COMPANY
314-316 Somerville Ave.,
SOMERVILLE
Furniture Bought, Sold and Exchanged
"The house that is known for the customers it keeps."

—Mr. Cyrus L. Doe of Linden St. has been suffering from a severe cold.

—Mrs. Norval S. Bacon, who has been ill with tonsilitis for some time, is recovering.

—The Sunshine Club will meet Wednesday, Feb. 4, at the home of Mrs. O. B. Vinal.

—Ralph Luongo, while at work at the Arlington Coal Company yard at the Heights, Tuesday afternoon, was caught in some machinery and given such a wrench that medical assistance was summoned. After being treated, Luongo was taken to his home in Lexington in the police ambulance.

—The meeting of the Arlington Heights Study Club was held at the home of Mrs. H. R. Pierce on Tuesday afternoon. The subject of the afternoon was "Voyage of the Mayflower." A paper dealing with the first start of the Pilgrims from England on the Speedwell and their return, prepared by Mrs. George Lloyd, was read by Mrs. George Clark, owing to the unavoidable absence of Mrs. Lloyd. Mrs. Charles W. Tilton, president of the club, in her paper, continued the journey on the Mayflower and their arrival in Plymouth. Both papers were most interesting and held the close attention of the members. A social hour, with tea, followed.

PIANO ACTION Rattles, jarring sounds, keys stick, everything out of gear. For remedy see FRANK A. LOCKE

ARLINGTON SUPPLY CO.
1387-1389 MASS. AVE.

Cut Prices on Hardware.
Sale Now Going On.

Our prices and quality of goods will surprise you. Tradesmen will find a great variety of highest grade tools from the best makers at extremely low prices.

Automobile accessories and specialties at rock bottom prices.

Plenty of nails in stock.

Large assortment of genuine congealum rugs.

Oriental Tea Company
17 Brattle Street
Crawford House Building
Scollay Sq., Boston
Notice our NEW Location
Teas and Coffees
"Quality always the best"
"Look for the Big Gold Tea Kettle"
Established 1868

Under New Management
We beg to announce the opening of the

Regent Bowling Alley

With eight up-to-date Alleys, New Pins, New Ebonite Bowling Balls.

—Courteous attendants.

We respectfully solicit your patronage.
Alleys reserved for ladies.
Refreshments of all kinds.
Cigars and Tobacco.

UNDER THE REGENT THEATRE.
29no6w

Halladay's
BAILEY PROCESS
Produces the best high quality
Cleansing and Dyeing. Once
Tried, Always Used.

Telephone or write
Bailey's, Cleansers-Dyers
INC.

30 Washburn Street, Watertown
N. N. 1850

36 West St., Boston, Beach 1960

9 Church St., Winchester, Win. 528

Porter & Co., Mass. Ave., Arlington
Arl. 1835-M.

NOTICE is hereby given that the subscribers have been duly appointed executors of the will of Milford Goodwin, late of Arlington, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, testate and have taken upon themselves that trust by giving bond, as the law directs.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased, and are hereby required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

MINNIE V. GOODWIN,
ROY R. GOODWIN, Executrix.

(Address)
8 Wyman Terrace,
Arlington, Mass.

January 27, 1920.

20jan3w

Announcement

Dancing Party

TO BE GIVEN BY THE

Arlington Gas Employees' Association

IN

Robbins Memorial Town Hall

ARLINGTON

Wednesday Evening, Feb. 11, 1920

Hick's Original Orchestra

Subscription 55 Cents

Annual Canned Goods Week
OSSIPEE CORN B. BRAND TOMATOES
$1.99 doz. $1.99 doz.
OTHER CANNED GOODS EQUALLY LOW
AT THE
W. HUTCHINSON & CO.
MARKETS
ARLINGTON CENTER
ARLINGTON HEIGHTS
WINCHESTER LEXINGTON

Water Damage Insurance.

Protect your house from Damage by Leakage, Overflow or Freezing of Plumbing and Heating Systems, Open or Broken Windows, Defective Roofs, Backing up of Water from Gutters, and many other causes.

PARTICULARS FURNISHED ON INQUIRY

RUSSELL & FAIRFIELD
99 MILK ST., MASS.
BOSTON, MASS.
Phone Main 5020

WHEN FLAMES FILL THE FACTORY
despair fills the owner who has neglected to look after his insurance. We handle the insurance of some very large concerns. We place it in the best companies, pay the losses promptly and attend to renewals. Let us do that for you. It will not cost you anything for our service. We give the best service.

R. WALTER HILLIARD
679 Mass. Ave., Arlington

The Arlington Teachers' Club Presents Its Annual Course of LECTURES

JAN. 27. JOHN KENDRICK BANGS in his new lecture
"The Spirit of America Abroad"

MARCH 3. THE SYMPHONY PLAYERS
Assisted by Edith Weyl, Contralto

APRIL 28. MME. MARIE SUNDELIUS
Soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Co.

NEW TOWN HALL 8 P. M.

Course tickets, one dollar, to be obtained from any of the town schools; by the payment of fifty cents additional these tickets may be exchanged for reserved seats for the course, at the Town Hall, Jan. 22, 2 to 5 p. m.

EAST ARLINGTON.

* The Sewing club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. H. Wheeler of Waverly.

* The A. B. C. D. club met last Friday with Mrs. Charles Draper of Orvis road.

* A daughter was born at the Copp hospital Friday, Jan. 23, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Morley, of Thorndike street.

* The Community club has elected officers for 1920 as follows:—president, Charles E. Howe; vice-president, A. M. Holland; secretary, Stuart N. Hotaling; treasurer, James W. Hearsay.

* The Friday Bridge Club met last week with Mrs. F. Muir of Waverly. The prizes were won by Mrs. Hugh Nimmo and Mrs. Frank Degoe. The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. David Gaw of Cambridge.

* The Woman's Missionary society and Warren L. Teel of Trinity Baptist church combined, held an all day sewing meeting with Mrs. Abbott, Everett street, on Thursday. The sewing was for a missionary in Kansas.

* A stereopticon lecture will be given by Mr. George Learn, of Kodiak, Alaska, this (Friday) evening in the chapel of Trinity Baptist church, under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary society. The Ever Ready Workers will sing. Everyone is cordially invited. Silver offering.

* Sunday morning, Feb. 1 at 10:30 the communion service of Calvary church, will be held in G. A. R. Hall, with reception of new members. In the evening the pastor will preach on "The Prodigal's Awakening; or, The Call of a Man." This is the fourth in a series of sermons on the Prodigal Son. The Ladies' Aid Society will meet Tuesday evening, Feb. 3, at the home of Mrs. John MacNeil, 46 Trowbridge street.

* The official board of Calvary Methodist church met Dr. W. L. McDowell of Philadelphia last Sunday afternoon, in conference on the first year appropriation of Centenary Funds. Dr. McDowell assured the Board that as soon as the local campaign for building funds was carried through, the project would receive the help of the Centenary Board at Philadelphia. It is now up to the church and community to see to it that subscription to the building fund are brought in quickly, and in as large an amount as possible.

* On Friday evening of last week in the room used as a school in the territory adjacent to Decatur street, a largely attended meeting was held in the interests of the Americanization work now going on in the town under the supervision of the school authorities. Supt. George C. Minard presided and introduced Angelo G. Perez as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Perez was formerly secretary of the North American Civic League for emigrants, and he explained fully to his audience, in their native tongue, the work of Americanization and his listeners showed marked interest.

* All services and activities in Church of Our Saviour are being conducted in line with the Nation Wide Campaign of this denomination. The committee for the local parish is as follows:—Mr. Percy Meine, chairman; Mrs. Friery, Mr. Ralph Kinsman, Mrs. Cynthia Hurst, and this committee is making plans for the direction of the campaign. Next Sunday morning the sermon topic will be "Christian Fellowship." There will also be five minute speakers from different parishes. The Sunday school children have already distributed the purple window crosses. The campaign is being introduced into the meetings of the Woman's Guild and as a result they are becoming more interesting. This (Friday) evening a Men's club connected with the church will be organized and plans are being made for Girls' Friendly society and Sir Galahad club.

* The re-organized bowling teams of the Community Club of Arlington held their first session of a new series of games last Friday evening on the Arlington Alleys. This new series is made up of six six-men teams in order to allow more members to participate in the sport. The teams have been considerably changed so as to equalize them and give all improved chance to win the many prizes offered. In the matches Friday night the race for the high single prize was between G. Young of Team 5 and A. Pederson of Team 4, the former winning out 118 to 117. Pederson, however, won the three string total with 302. The games resulted in Team One winning three points from Team Two, Team Four winning three points from Team Six; Team Three took three points from Team Five. Team Four rolled the best team score with 1630.

* Miss Ella M. Burt, formerly of Brighton, died Wednesday night Jan. 21, at the home of her brother, Frederick A. Burt, of 30 Milton street, following a painful illness. Miss Burt was a native of Springfield where she was a member of the Second Baptist church. She had been employed for 32 years as a clerk in the executive offices of the clerk of the Commonwealth. Besides the brother referred to she is survived by two other brothers, Charles B. Burt, of Springfield, and Edwin R. Burt of Brooklyn, N. Y., and two sisters, Minnie D. Burt, of Springfield, and Mrs. Henry H. Woodward, of Enfield, Conn. The funeral was held from her late home Friday afternoon, Jan. 23, at two o'clock and was conducted by Rev. R. C. Ellsworth, of Calvary M. E. church. Miss Georgia Critcherson, of this town, sang several selections. The burial was in a Springfield cemetery.

* Police Officers Kirlin, Belyea and Lopez deserve and will receive the thanks of the residents of this community on their complete success in rounding up and breaking up a gang of seven young men, all local residents, who were directly or indirectly connected with the robbery of the Arlington Dry Goods store, at 164 Mass. avenue, on the night of Nov. 21. The value of the goods stolen totalled some $200, of which $75 worth were recovered and restored to the owners, on Thursday Jan. 22. The cases were disposed of on Tuesday Jan. 20, in the Middlesex Superior court as follows: Three of the men pleaded guilty to the charge of breaking and entering in the night time. The leader, Edward McArthur, aged 22 years, was given an indeterminate sentence to the Concord reformatory, and the other two were placed on probation. The other four pleaded guilty to conspiracy and were also placed on probation. It is believed that this gang was interested in other breaks and attempted breaks.

MORE STRENUOUS WEATHER.

Another week of strenuous winter weather is here recorded. As on the week previous, Saturday proved to be a snowy one. From the time the snow first started to fall, early Saturday, until it stopped Sunday morning, about four inches of snow fell here, while in Boston several more inches was reported. The weather reports had forecasted snow with increasing northeast winds, but everyone was very thankful that the promised gales did not set in, for impassable drifts equal to those of the Sabbath previous would probably have resulted. As it was, the street railway was able to maintain its service with slight delays. The snow came on thicker as the day progressed and by nightfall it was snowing very hard, with the temperature well below 20. It was during the height of the storm, about 7:30 Saturday evening, that a Middlesex and Boston Street Railway trolley, bound toward Lexington centre, rammed the rear end of a stalled automobile truck on the car tracks, on Mass. avenue, near the old East Lexington Inn, in East Lexington. The front vestibule of the car was wrecked, but motorman Joseph Campbell almost miraculously escaped injury. The twenty passengers on the car escaped with a fright and shaking up. They were transferred to another car rushed to the scene from the car barns in North Lexington, and made the belated trip about a half an hour late. The truck was owned by George E. Custance of Taft avenue, East Lexington. Mr. Custance had left his truck on the car tracks while he went home to secure some chains and a shovel in an effort to get the truck home. It is claimed that there was no rear light on the truck, so in the blinding snowstorm, motorman Campbell was unable to see the machine until almost upon it. The truck, strange to relate, was not damaged.

The Boston and Maine Railroad trains apparently were further off schedule than the street cars during the storm. The steam road operated plows over the Lexington branch Sunday, and had the tracks cleared before traffic was resumed on Monday. The street railway ran its plows all day Saturday, that night and into Sunday, to keep the tracks free from snow. Not until last Saturday were both tracks of the double rail section in North Lexington and Bedford opened up following the storm of a week ago. The last highway was not broken out until last Friday, so badly blocked were many of the roads. Superintendent of Highways Robert H. White kept the sidewalks well plowed out.

Following close on the heels of the snowstorm was another below-zero spell. Monday morning, it was frigid, with the mercury 5 degrees below zero in the centre of the town and as low as 10 below in North Lexington. At the government station in Concord, it went to 11 below.

The biggest surprise of the climatic changes was sprung Tuesday morning when residents awoke to find it raining, with the temperature nearly up to 40. The rain did not last long, and the sun shone some during the day, which was unusually mild, with a maximum temperature reading of 53 degrees about 2 o'clock, in the afternoon. The storm started about midnight, Monday night, with a fine snow, and with the temperature at 13 above. Earlier in the evening, the glass had stood as low as 5 above, making a big climb in the mercury of nearly 50 degrees in less than 24 hours. The snow melted considerably during the day, and made the walking sloppy in places.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

The tenth anniversary of the establishment of the Women's Educational and Industrial Union Appointment Bureau was celebrated Monday evening by a dinner at the Hotel Brunswick. Following the dinner Henry P. Kendall, of the Plimpton Press, gave an address on "The Enlargement of Opportunity for Women in Industry," followed by remarks by representatives of the bureau's affiliations, Pres. Henry LeFevre, of Simmons College, for the trustees; Miss Marion Edwards Park, associate dean, Simmons College, for the advisory committee; Miss Cora Coolidge, chairman, representing the national committee Bureaus of Occupations; Mrs. Everett O. Fisk, for the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, Boston Branch; Charles B. Kingsley, State Board of Education; Ralph G. Wells, the Employment Managers' Association, and Miss Amy Woods, for Social Service Agencies. Miss Marion Churchill of Arlington, the new president of the Union, presided with efficiency and grace.

The Department of Vocational Advice and Appointment, while in existence in its present form only since 1910, traces its origin to the earliest days of the Union, when, in 1877, among the four departments started by the new organization was "a registry for the higher employment of women." In the constitution, as incorporated in 1880, the committee on employment was again one of the first to be provided for.

The purpose of the Bureau is threefold—vocational advice, given through talks to undergraduates in women's colleges and through interviews in the office; extension of opportunities for women, accomplished through the work of its field agent, who is always on the alert to discover new occupations in which it is possible to use women; the replacement of the trained woman in the particular kind of work for which her special training has best fitted her.

ARLINGTON LOCALS.

Timothy F. Collins of 15 Webster street has announced his candidacy for the office of Selectman for three year term.

The members of the choir of St. Agnes church were the guests of the pastor, Rev. Matthew Flaherty, at the Handel and Haydn concert in Symphony Hall, last Sunday afternoon.

While at work at the ice house of the Cambridge Ice Company at Spy Pond, last Friday afternoon, George Turner of 20 Russell street was struck by a cake of ice. His right leg was fractured. Turner was attended by Drs. Charles A. Keegan and Charles F. Atwood, then removed to the Symmes Arlington Hospital in the police ambulance.

The Arlington Council Knights of Columbus basketball team met defeat in the old Town Hall on Thursday night of last week, the team from Norwood winning out by a score of 25 to 20. The battle was an interesting one to witness and should have been won by Arlington. In the second half the visitors played a good team work game and their shots were true and counted.

The High school ice hockey team went to Hanover, N. H., Friday afternoon of last week and on Saturday afternoon met the Dartmouth College freshman team. Arlington boys put up a good fight but the other team played a faster game and won out by a score of 5 to 0. The Dartmouth players peppered the Arlington goal repeatedly and but for the wonderful playing of Murphy, the goal tend for Arlington, the score would have been much larger. Bob Smith, who captained the Arlington High team last year, played on the Dartmouth team and scored one of the goals for his team. The Dartmouth team made all its scores in the first half, meeting with a very stiff resistance in the second half, and playing a more defensive game than was necessary in the first half. Capt. Bower of the Arlington team was much in evidence in the playing and his work was clever, but not effective enough for him to make a tally. The summary:—

DARTMOUTH '23 ARLINGTON H. S.
Paisley lw rw Tobin
Furry lw rw Tobin
Eaton c c Lynch
Smith rw rw Hardy
Wannamaker r r Bower
Foster cp cp Crosby
Culver cp cp Crosby
Neidlinger p p Sheehan
Morrison p p Haley
Holmes g g Murphy
Score—Dartmouth Freshmen, 5 Goals, Eat. on 4. Smith, Referee, Bowler. Goal umpires, Adams, Sands, Lewiston. Timers, Plumb, Cowan. Time, 18 minutes halves.

The new rink in the rear of the High school was used for the first time for an ice hockey game, on Thursday of last week, the High school team going to a scoreless tie with Stoneham High. Although three overtime periods were played, the tie could not be broken. The game was a hard fight all the way through and each team put up a stiff battle. The teams were quite even as to weight, size and speed, so the game was an interesting one to witness. The ice on the rink was not of the best, but made it as bad for one as the other and everything along this line was agreeable. Had the day been a little longer, more overtime periods would have been played so that the game could be decided one way or the other. During the last overtime period, Hardy of the Arlington team was struck over the eye by a hockey stick and in swinging around after being hit, his hockey stick struck Reynolds of the visiting team across the shins. Both men were forced to retire and the game went on minus them. Dan Murphy at goal showed that he was the right man in the right place and he stopped many shots which were made by the opposing team. Packard of the visiting team also making some very remarkable stops. The score was as follows:—

ARLINGTON HIGH	STONEHAM HIGH
Tobin rw	lw Duplin
Lynch c	lw Jackson
Bower r	c Cogan
Hardy lw	r Measures
Crosby cp	lw Reynolds
Sheehan p	cp Conant
Murphy g	p Fudge
Referee, Lowe, Goal umpires, Gay and	g Packard
Duncanson, Timer, Campbell. Time, two 10 minutes and three 5 minute periods.

In order to make travel safe and also aid the fire department in case of a fire, town engineer George Ahern had the big gutter scraper driven through every street in the town, after the heavy snow fall the first of last week. There were some sections that were not accessible, owing to the many drifts, and in case of fire these were practically without protection of any kind. These drifts were leveled and pushed to one side so that from one end of the town to the other the fire apparatus could easily be driven on any street.

The Boston Market Gardeners' Association of which Arthur P. Wyman, of Lake street, is secretary, will hold its next meeting Saturday, Jan. 31, at 12 South Market street, Boston. The business meeting is at 1:30 p. m., when the subject of discussion will be "What are we in Business For?" The speakers are to be John D. Willard, director of extension service, Massachusetts Agricultural College, Howard S. Russell and J. Winthrop Stone. A committee appointed by the executive board to investigate the possibilities of taking up co-operative buying, will report at this meeting. The day's exhibit will be of Concord greenhouse products arranged by the exhibit committee. The annual banquet of the association will be held at Young's Hotel Wednesday evening, February 4. There will be good speakers and a fine entertainment, and the usual good dinner.

The purpose of the Bureau is threefold—vocational advice, given through talks to undergraduates in women's colleges and through interviews in the office; extension of opportunities for women, accomplished through the work of its field agent, who is always on the alert to discover new occupations in which it is possible to use women; the replacement of the trained woman in the particular kind of work for which her special training has best fitted her.

It was with real pleasure that the High school basketball team gave the Watertown High team a trouncing, last Friday evening, in the High school gymnasium. Arlington played a better game, and although Watertown had about four hits at the basket to Arlington's one, the visitors could not make good. This Watertown team had been boosted and were looked on as winners before the game started. The Arlington boys deserve great credit for the game they played, fast and clean, and with the one idea in mind, that they could beat Watertown. It was this spirit that won, the final score being 12 to 5. Arlington High is coming fast in this game. Their team work is more than good and they cover their man in such a manner as to make it hard for him to get a shot at the basket. Coach MacDonald of the visiting team tried out many schemes for his team to win, replacing players with fresh men and the like, but to no avail. There was no individual play on the part of Arlington and all should be praised for the work they did. Between the halves, the Watertown second team defeated the Arlington second team, 18 to 11. The summary of the big game:—

ARLINGTON H. S.	Gls. Fls. Pts.
Burnett rf	1 4 6
Smith If	2 0 4
Coolidge c	1 0 2
Viano, rb	0 0 0
Hargrave lb	0 0 0
Totals	4 4 12

WATERTOWN H. S.	Gls. Fls. Pts.
Moran lb	0 0 0
Eason rb	0 0 0
Stephen rb	0 0 0
Manning c	0 0 0
Picco c	0 0 0
Chamberlain If	1 0 2
G. Chamberlain If	1 1 3
Totals	2 1 5

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Bartel F. Swanson and Eva Doe Swanson to Frank E. Granger, Trustee under the Will of Ezra Conant for the benefit of Helen F. Allen, dated June 2nd, 1919, and recorded with Middlesex (So. Dist.) Deeds Book 4262, Page 139, for breach of the condition of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction on Monday, February 9th, 1920, at half-past three o'clock in the afternoon, on the premises, all and singular the premises described in said mortgage, to wit:—

The land in Arlington in the County of Middlesex, being lots 9 and 10 on a plan of land belonging to Rachel A. Wheelock, drawn by J. C. Hamilton, C. E., dated July 8, 1916, and recorded with Middlesex (So. Dist.) Deeds Book of Plans 249, Plan No. 45. Said lots 9 and 10, described together as bounded Northeastly by Summer Street Extension as shown on said plan, 98.27 feet; Northwesterly by lot 8 on said plan, 115 feet; Southwesterly by lot 9 on said plan, and by land of owners unknown, 86.6 feet; and Southeasterly by lot 11 on said plan, 105 feet. Containing 10,120 square feet of land, together with the buildings thereon.

The sale will be subject to all unpaid taxes and assessments. One hundred dollars in cash required at time and place of sale and the balance ten days thereafter.

FRANK E. GRANGER, Trustee,
Mortgagee.

J. & J. Ballantyne, Attorneys.
14 Dudley Street, Roxbury.

16jan3w

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

PROBATE COURT.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Mary J. Hammond, late of Arlington, in said County, deceased, intestate.

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Andrew Hammond, of Arlington, in the County of Middlesex without giving a surety on his bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the eleventh day of February, A. D. 1920, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Arlington Advocate, a newspaper published in Arlington, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

GEORGE F. LAWTON, Esquire,
First Judge of said Court, this nineteenth day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty.

F. M. ESTY, Register.

Arlington

COAL

Co.

TELEPHONE ARLINGTON 1100.

The Co-operative Shoe for Men

La France
for Women

Don't get caught before next storm without a supply of Rubbers. Get them now.

"GOODYEAR GLOVE" BRAND

All Sizes.

All Kinds.

GEO. H. RICE
618 MASS. AVENUE ARLINGTON CENTRE

WHY NOT
Be a Subscriber==

Nothing can fill the place of a local paper like this one . . .

$2.50

A Year

High Toned, Clean in every way; bright,
newsy,—it is like sunlight in the home . . .

Have it delivered FREE, instead of paying more for it at the agency and having to go for it each week . . .

COAL

At Lowest Market Price

PEIRCE & WINN CO.

ELLERY M. PARKS

Optometrist

EYES EXAMINED. PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED.
GLASSES REPAIRED.

Examinations by Appointment Preferred.
Rooms 307-8 Washington Bldg.

387 WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON
OPP. FRANKLIN ST

Telephone 901-M

J. V. N. HATFIELD.
CARPENTER and BUILDER
Joining Promptly and Personally Attended to Estimates on New Work Given

80 Pleasant Street

ARLINGTON

JAMES T. SWAN,
Certified Public Accountant

60 STATE ST., BOSTON.

Tel. Fort Hill 2447 Residence Arlington 120

ARLINGTON REGISTRY for NURSES

ELIZABETH PECK, R. N.
REGISTRAR.

GRADUATE and ATTENDANT NURSES

15 MEDFORD STREET TEL. ARLINGTON 446

Business Phone 1807 Residence Phone 1072

M. Donovan

High Grade Plumbing and Heating

Member Arlington Board of Trade.

Bank References.

1386 Mass. Ave., Res. 41 Forest St.,
Arlington Heights. 19jan3w

When you "know"

you have a stomach it's time to suspect your liver.

You need Beecham's Pills.

A lazy liver and overworked

kidneys allow food

poisons to circulate

in the blood and irritate the entire body.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

Largest Sale of Any Medicine in the World.

Sold everywhere. In boxes, 10c., 25c.

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of James M. Meikle, late of Arlington, in said County, deceased.

WHEREAS, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court for Probate, by Arthur H. Ring and Harold E. Ring, who pray that letters of administration with the will annexed may be issued to them, with power of giving a surety on their bond, or to some other suitable person, no executor being named in said will.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex, on the second day of February, A. D., 1920, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Arlington Advocate, a newspaper published in Arlington, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing postpaid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE F. LAWTON, Esquire.

First Judge of said Court, this thirteenth day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty.

16jan3w F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex, ss.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors,

and all other persons interested in the estate of John Smallman, late of Arlington, in said County, deceased.

ARLINGTON LOCALS.

Continued from Page 1.

Grace Stone of Central street, Somerville. Mrs. Stella Marek Cushing, violinist, accompanied by Miss Blanche Lyon, entertained the members with the following selections:—"African Dances," Coleridge Taylor; "Andantino," Kreisler; "The Swan," St. Saens; "Humming Bird," Drdla; "Liebesfreud," Kreisler; "Oriental," Cut. Mrs. Cushing's artistic rendering and beautiful interpretation of these selections was sincerely appreciated, as was evidenced by the large attendance, despite the storm.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sawyer sympathize with them in the critical illness of Mr. Sawyer.

A midseason concert and dance will be given by the pupils of Jessica Marsden O'Brien, at the G. A. R. Hall, Wednesday evening, Feb. 11, at eight o'clock. Dancing will follow the concert.

The Arlington Smith College club begins its drive this week for their quota of $8,000 in the Arlington district. We hope to go "over the top" as well as our near neighbor, Winchester, has done.

The basketball game between Arlington High and Winchester High will be played in the High school gymnasium, next Monday evening. The game was scheduled for last Wednesday, but was postponed.

Reserve Thursday evening, Feb. 12, for the First Military Ball given by Arlington Post 39, American Legion. The boys will appear in uniform and promise a good time. Music furnished by Poole's twelve piece orchestra.

Miss Grace Sage will interpret "The Country Cousin," by Booth Tarkington, at Robbins Memorial Hall, Friday, Feb. 13. There will be four musical numbers by the members of Snap Dragon Troop for whose benefit the affair has been planned.

The members of the parish will meet at the Orthodox Congregational church, Monday evening, Feb. 2. Supper at quarter of six by Westover and Foss, followed by a business meeting at quarter of eight, at which matters of great interest connected with the church will be acted upon.

The members of Snap Dragon Troop (Girl Scouts) have been working this week distributing pledges in connection with the Girl Scout campaign. If, by chance, you are not visited, any pledge for one dollar or over may be sent to Mrs. G. A. Hastings, captain, 37 Robbins road. This organization is worthy of the generous support and encouragement of the townspeople.

The special music arranged for next Sunday at the Congregational church, in connection with Rev. S. C. Bushnell's thirtieth anniversary as pastor, will be rendered by a double quartette composed of Mrs. Carolyn B. Reed, Miss Josephine Knight, sopranos; Gertrude A. Wood and Miss Nichols, altos; A. C. Whittemore, and Mr. Collins, tenors; John P. Stryker and Mr. Philpen, bassos. Mr. Louis Dalbeck, cellist soloist will supplement the organ and give the two solo numbers. Any interested will be cordially welcomed. The service begins at 10:45.

A delightful dancing party will be held tomorrow evening in Robbins Memorial Town Hall. Messrs. Charles Hardy, Mrs. Henry S. Adams and Mrs. William Marsden of this town, and Mrs. C. P. Johnson of Lexington, are interested in the Dartmouth dance which will be held in the Robbins Memorial Town Hall on Saturday evening, Feb. 7th. The music for the dance is furnished by the combined Dartmouth College Novelty Orchestra, which appeared here a short time ago.

The High school ice hockey team went to Cambridge on Monday afternoon and took on the Harvard freshman team. The Harvard boys proved too much for the Arlington boys and handed them a 5 to 2 defeat. Arlington put up a stiff fight and here again our goal tender, Dan Murphy, proved himself a good man for the place. The shots at the Arlington goal were many and in rapid succession and the defense was kept on the jump all of the time. Bowers and Hardy were the only ones to score on the Arlington team.

Town Hall was taxed to its capacity on Monday evening, at a dancing party, held under the auspices of Arlington Council, Knights of Columbus. The party was a pretty one and many were present from out of town. The general committee in charge of the affair was Wm. Hardy, chairman; Edward A. Geary, Louis McKenna, Thomas A. O'Neil, Edward McCarthy, John T. McCarthy, John Murray, John B. Keane, M. Canniff, Eugene J. Datey, James Walsh. During the dancing the hall was in charge of Edward A. Geary, floor director.

Friends of Mr. Frank H. Abbey, will sympathize with him in the loss of his mother Mrs. H. S. Abbey who was away at her home in Watkins, N. Y., Jan. 6, after two years of invalidism. The "Watkins Express," the newspaper of the town printed a fine tribute to her memory, which must have been a source of deep gratitudo to the family. She was a woman of strong character. Mr. Abbey, who for a number of years was the Boston representative of the Gifford-Wood Company and resided in Arlington, is now in business in Portland, Me., and he is president of the company.

The first degree of the order was exemplified on a large class of candidates at the meeting of Arlington Council Knights of Columbus, Tuesday evening. The officers conferring the degree were Edward A. Geary, G. K. John B. Byrne, D. G. K. William Keefe, chancellor, D. Edward McCarthy, warden, James J. Flynn B. B. William Cody and Thomas Geary guards. At this meeting it was announced that the first and second degrees would be conferred on a large class of candidates on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 15, in Odd Fellows Hall, also that the third degree would be exemplified on Tuesday evening, Feb. 17th.

Barry followed farming and made a success of it. Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters.

The Knights of Columbus Basketball team played the West End team on Tuesday evening and met with defeat by a score of 32 to 10.

Edward H. H. Bartlett, in a letter written the first of this week to an Arlington friend, wished to be remembered to all. "Teddy" is still confined to the Monson State Hospital at Palmer.

N. J. Hardy, Omar Whittemore, Dr. F. Holden Smith and Haverlock Mader of this town, and Clifford Currier of Lexington, returned the first of this week from a successful fishing trip to New Hampshire.

A midseason concert and dance will be given by the pupils of Jessica Marsden O'Brien, at the G. A. R. Hall, Wednesday evening, Feb. 11, at eight o'clock. Dancing will follow the concert.

The Arlington Smith College club begins its drive this week for their quota of $8,000 in the Arlington district. We hope to go "over the top" as well as our near neighbor, Winchester, has done.

The basketball game between Arlington High and Winchester High will be played in the High school gymnasium, next Monday evening. The game was scheduled for last Wednesday, but was postponed.

Reserve Thursday evening, Feb. 12, for the First Military Ball given by Arlington Post 39, American Legion. The boys will appear in uniform and promise a good time. Music furnished by Poole's twelve piece orchestra.

Miss Grace Sage will interpret "The Country Cousin," by Booth Tarkington, at Robbins Memorial Hall, Friday, Feb. 13. There will be four musical numbers by the members of Snap Dragon Troop for whose benefit the affair has been planned.

The members of the parish will meet at the Orthodox Congregational church, Monday evening, Feb. 2. Supper at quarter of six by Westover and Foss, followed by a business meeting at quarter of eight, at which matters of great interest connected with the church will be acted upon.

The members of Snap Dragon Troop (Girl Scouts) have been working this week distributing pledges in connection with the Girl Scout campaign. If, by chance, you are not visited, any pledge for one dollar or over may be sent to Mrs. G. A. Hastings, captain, 37 Robbins road. This organization is worthy of the generous support and encouragement of the townspeople.

The special music arranged for next Sunday at the Congregational church, in connection with Rev. S. C. Bushnell's thirtieth anniversary as pastor, will be rendered by a double quartette composed of Mrs. Carolyn B. Reed, Miss Josephine Knight, sopranos; Gertrude A. Wood and Miss Nichols, altos; A. C. Whittemore, and Mr. Collins, tenors; John P. Stryker and Mr. Philpen, bassos. Mr. Louis Dalbeck, cellist soloist will supplement the organ and give the two solo numbers. Any interested will be cordially welcomed. The service begins at 10:45.

A delightful dancing party will be held tomorrow evening in Robbins Memorial Town Hall. Messrs. Charles Hardy, Mrs. Henry S. Adams and Mrs. William Marsden of this town, and Mrs. C. P. Johnson of Lexington, are interested in the Dartmouth dance which will be held in the Robbins Memorial Town Hall on Saturday evening, Feb. 7th. The music for the dance is furnished by the combined Dartmouth College Novelty Orchestra, which appeared here a short time ago.

Town Hall was taxed to its capacity on Monday evening, at a dancing party, held under the auspices of Arlington Council, Knights of Columbus. The party was a pretty one and many were present from out of town. The general committee in charge of the affair was Wm. Hardy, chairman; Edward A. Geary, Louis McKenna, Thomas A. O'Neil, Edward McCarthy, John T. McCarthy, John Murray, John B. Keane, M. Canniff, Eugene J. Datey, James Walsh. During the dancing the hall was in charge of Edward A. Geary, floor director.

Friends of Mr. Frank H. Abbey, will sympathize with him in the loss of his mother Mrs. H. S. Abbey who was away at her home in Watkins, N. Y., Jan. 6, after two years of invalidism. The "Watkins Express," the newspaper of the town printed a fine tribute to her memory, which must have been a source of deep gratitudo to the family. She was a woman of strong character. Mr. Abbey, who for a number of years was the Boston representative of the Gifford-Wood Company and resided in Arlington, is now in business in Portland, Me., and he is president of the company.

The first degree of the order was exemplified on a large class of candidates at the meeting of Arlington Council Knights of Columbus, Tuesday evening. The officers conferring the degree were Edward A. Geary, G. K. John B. Byrne, D. G. K. William Keefe, chancellor, D. Edward McCarthy, warden, James J. Flynn B. B. William Cody and Thomas Geary guards. At this meeting it was announced that the first and second degrees would be conferred on a large class of candidates on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 15, in Odd Fellows Hall, also that the third degree would be exemplified on Tuesday evening, Feb. 17th.

Mrs. D. T. Percy is entertaining her mother, Mrs. George Almy, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hornblower leave on Tuesday of next week for their winter residence at Pinehurst, N. C.

Miss Marion Rowse was hostess at a toboggan party, Wednesday afternoon, on Franklin Field. The guests were Jerome Keleher, Edgar Rosie, Dolores Osborne, Evelyn Swan.

The entertainment committee of the Unitarian church has arranged for a social evening, February 4th, at 7:30, in the church vestry. It will take the form of an old fashioned spelling match, with prizes. Refreshments will be served.

Most of our readers will be pleased to hear that Mr. Myron Taylor has reversed his purpose to retire from office and will again be a candidate for treasurer at the March election. This is at the urgent request of people interested in the town's welfare.

Mr. H. A. Phinney sailed on Thursday for Europe on the Carmelina from New York. Mrs. Phinney accompanied Mr. Phinney to New York, on Monday and remained in that city until after the sailing of the ship. Mr. Phinney returns March sixth on the Mauretania.

The next meeting of the Bradshaw Missionary Association will be held in the vestry of the Congregational church on Monday, February second, at three o'clock. Miss Harriet C. Norton, who has recently returned from Turkey, will speak on her work there among the orphans. There will be songs by Miss Mabel Davis.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Alexander, January 16, at their home in Toledo, Ohio. Mrs. Alexander will perhaps be better remembered by her maiden name, Loraine Eaton, who was one of the popular teachers in our High school. The little lady has been named Constantine Harriett.

A quiet wedding, with only the immediate families attending, occurred at the home of Mr. James H. Shedd, 28 Draper avenue, on Saturday afternoon, at two o'clock, when his niece, Miss Lena Gage Pearce of Somerville and Mr. William Ernest Adams of Auburndale, were married by the Rev. E. A. Overton of Newburyport. Miss Winifred Shedd was maid of honor and Mr. Theodore Perry Bell the best man. The music for the occasion was furnished by Miss Marguerite Shedd at the piano. Immediately following the ceremony a collation was served.

The Bradshaw Auxiliary gave a supper in the vestry of Orthodox Congregational church on Wednesday, at six thirty in the afternoon. The Camp Fire Girls were the guests of the Auxiliary. After the splendid supper by charge of Mrs. Ralph Day, the time was pleasantly passed with music and games. An interesting letter was read from Miss Wood a sister of Mrs. Edward N. Lacey. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, Feb. 10, at the home of Mrs. W. D. Clark, Jr., 25 Peabody street. Box luncheon and sewing during the afternoon and evening.

Town Clerk Robinson representing the Selectmen, attended a conference of the Overseers of the Poor and others interested in the care of the aged poor, at the State House in Boston on Wednesday afternoon. The subject considered was the "Problem in the care of the aged poor in each community and the methods being taken to solve this problem." Mr. Robinson reports a most interesting and instructive meeting and came away more firmly convinced than ever that the time is rapidly approaching, if not already here, when this problem should be met in a true community spirit and by care of the aged in manner other than by local or state institutions.

Miss Crook gave her fourth dramatic lecture in the series of six arranged by the dramatic committee, of the Arlington Woman's club, Monday afternoon, at 128 Pleasant street. Miss Crook outlined what constituted a great play and then discussed a few of the American dramatists and their plays. Among them were Bronson Howard, William Gillett, and Clyde Fitch. Miss Crook gave a brief outline of Howard's "Shannadoah's," Gillett's "Secret Service," "The girl with the green eyes," and "The Climbers," the latter three among the forty plays written by Fitch in ten years previous to his death. The next lecture is on Monday, Feb. 2. Single tickets to the two remaining lectures are fifty cents and may be secured by applying to Mrs. Wm. M. Hatch, chairman.

We wonder if the residents of the town are aware of the grave danger they are in as regards to a fire during this snow. To be sure the main streets can be travelled by the motor apparatus, but the side streets, many of them, are not accessible to automobiles. The residents of the Heights section are still more in danger, for in spite of the fact that the streets have been plowed out to some extent, the climb is a hard one and we doubt if the motor apparatus could make the hills. In other sections the fire departments have been put back to the old style while the snow lasts, that is, horse drawn pungs. With these, any section of the town can be reached with ease and they are always sure. This matter should receive the attention of the Selectmen and Fire Engineers. When present conditions obtain, pungs should be provided. It often happens that after a serious fire such precautions are taken. Why not now, before we have a serious fire.

John A. Colbert was the unanimous choice of the comrades of Arlington Post 39, American Legion, for the office of commander at the election of officers held in G. A. R. Hall on Wednesday evening. For the office of vice-commander, Adjutant and executive committee, there was some good natured rivalry among the young men, several names having been printed on the official bulletins.

—Mrs. Katherine Kelley, 80, 80, 95, 255; Alice Tiernay, 103, 100, 112, 315; Marion McManus, 85, 85, 88, 258; Mary Wallin, 86, 78, 95, 259; May Shean, 86, 94, 120, 296; 436, 437, 510, 1383.

Missionary and Social Union: Miss Nellie Clare, the Philathea Society; Mr. Howard S. Russell, the Sunday School; Mrs. William E. Richardson, the home department; Mr. Albert H. Bangs, treasurer of the Sunday school; Lucinda M. Higgins, historian. Greetings of the church were sent to Mr. William E. Wood, Mr. E. Nelson Blake, and Mrs. Henry Potter. These interesting reports showed the church to be a live wire in our community and also evidenced a healthy growth in all branches that is most gratifying. At the close of these reports, Mr. Harry T. Gregory presented the report of the nominating committee, which was accepted. The election followed immediately, which resulted in the reinstating of all those now holding the church offices to act for the ensuing year. At the close of the business meeting, all repaired to the chapel, to listen to the entertainment arranged by the chairman of this committee, Mrs. E. Nelson Blake. This included songs by Mr. Souster, accompanied by his wife; reading by Mrs. Ralph Hunt, who works with the children in the Loyal Legion; songs by Mrs. John M. Dick, the soprano of the church, and duettes by Mrs. Dick and Mrs. Blake; also a piano solo by Mr. Mark S. Dickey.

A short time ago the men of the Arlington Gas Light Company organized two bowling teams and had a couple of try-outs on the Arlington Alleys. The scores created some mirth among the young ladies in the office, with the result that manager Frank A. Woodhead issued a challenge to the young ladies for a match against the married men. Why the married men were picked as the victims is still unexplained by Mr. Woodhead. The young ladies accepted and on Wednesday evening, on the Arlington Alleys, the match was rolled before an audience that taxed the seating capacity. After the match ended the men had little to say relative to their qualities as bowlers, the young ladies taking all three strings and the total. Miss May Shean, sister of the well known baseball player, Dave Shean, was the high single string roller, with 120 and Miss Alice Tiernay rolled the high three single total with 315. The scores:

YOUNG LADIES' TEAM.

MARRIED MEN'S TEAM.

—Mr. Harry S. Kelsey is making frequent trips to Florida, where he is interested in real estate. He is developing Kelsey City, a place about six miles north of Palm Beach, situated on Lake Worth. Mr. Kelsey also owns 120,000 acres of land outside the city, which are being developed into orange and citrus groves, sugar plantations, etc. Directly across the lake from Kelsey City, on the ocean front, is Palm Beach Harbor, which bears the same relation to Kelsey City as Palm Beach to West Palm Beach. Palm Beach Harbor is being developed as a resort. Here Mr. Kelsey is constructing the Palm Beach Harbor Hotel, which will be open for guests sometime during 1920.

—The home of Mrs. James Alison Bailey, Jr., on Wellington street, was the scene of a charming afternoon entertainment on Wednesday, when Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Herbert M. Reed were joint hostesses. Some seventy-five friends were seated in the large music room at three o'clock, when Mr. Bailey introduced Mr. Carl Stockbridge one of the Symphony Orchestra members who played his cello numbers with not only smooth finish and perfect technique, but with deep feeling. His accompanist, Miss Katherine Yerrington, also played beautifully, making the numbers artistic gems. Mr. Stockbridge played three groups, which included Andacht by Popper; Tarantelle by Berceuse from Jocelyn by Godard; and a beautiful air by Hertzmann. Between the musical numbers Mrs. Roselith Knapp Breed gave several humorous impersonations which delighted her audience. Mrs. Breed

NOTICE is hereby given that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator of the estate of E. M. Burt, late of Arlington, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, intestate, and has taken upon himself the care of giving bond, as the law directs. All persons owing demands upon the estate are called upon to make payment to the same; and all persons indebted to the estate are called upon to make payment to the same.

FREDERICK A. BURT, Adm.

30 Milton St., Arlington.

January 29, 1920.

80 Jan 34

FREE -- For Two Weeks

Absolutely free, with no strings attached, you can have one of these remarkable machines delivered to your home. You can use it two whole weeks at OUR EXPENSE. One of our competent demonstrators will explain the few simple things you need to know about the Gainaday and do a whole washing for you.

THEN
$5
DOWN

THE ELECTRIC SHOP
683 Massachusetts Avenue, Arlington
GEO. W. JOHNSTON, MGR.

EASY PAYMENTS

After the trial you pay only $5.00 down. This applies to the purchase price, the balance being met by easy payments each month.

Now is the time to act. You'll never have a better opportunity to get as good an Electric Washer and Wringer as the Gainaday. Phone, write or come in for a demonstration — It will pay you.

TEL. CONN.